Chapter 280 I'm not afraid of pain

"OK.

Lu Qiubo naturally had no objection to his words and nodded.

"Grandpa Lin, Grandma Qiubo, you are not asleep yet."

A voice sounded, and the three of them looked outside the courtyard at the same time, only to see Ya Molian walking in with more than a dozen bags of things in her hand.

"Mo Lian, why are you here so late?" Lu Qiubo asked.

"I heard something moving here and thought someone was injured. It happened that little Sangzi asked me to go to the town and buy some medicine. I thought it would be useful, so I brought it over immediately."

Ya Molian said calmly.

In fact, he really didn't know what happened just now. He went to the bamboo house to have something to do and asked Ban Jue to keep an eye on Zhong You secretly.

But Zhong You still briefly told him what was going on here. When he knew Liu Chushui was injured, he quickly came over with the medicine to take a look. Maybe the medicine wouldn't have to wait until tomorrow and could be used today.

"Then go in quickly, Sangsang and the others are inside." Lu Qiubo said.

"Um."

Ya Molian nodded and walked towards Lin Changhong's room.

...

In the room, Lin Caisang was anxious. Liu Chushui's injuries were really serious, and he was broken in several places. It didn't matter, it could be cured, but the fracture on his right leg was very troublesome.

If the bones are not set correctly, you will be lame for the rest of your life.

"Liu Baixiao!"

She gritted her teeth and squeezed out these three words from between her teeth.

"Sang Sang, how is it? Can his injury be cured?" Lin Changhong asked quickly when he saw that his sister was so angry.

"It can be cured, but there is no painkiller, and the bones are injured in so many places, so you will have to suffer a lot." Lin Caisang looked at Liu Chushui seriously, feeling sorry for the child in his heart.

He was obviously only eleven years old, how had he been tortured by Liu Baixiao?

"Sister Sang Sang, just treat it. I'm not afraid of pain." Liu Chushui didn't have much reaction when he heard what she said.

It's not like he hasn't been injured before. His parents had to heal the injuries themselves, and they didn't even ask for a doctor to treat him. Now at least there is someone to treat him.

He felt that it was God's greatest favor to him.

"You!"

Lin Caisang sighed and shook his head.

"Brother Changfeng, go and prepare some hot water. The more the better. Brother, go to Third Uncle and ask for some wooden boards that can hold Chu Shui's legs, as well as fishing lines and fine needles, , scissors, cotton..."

She said a lot of things in one breath, all of which she asked Lin Changhong to find. After hearing this, the two of them left immediately.

"Without painkillers, we can only..." He stabbed the person unconscious with a needle and started doing it.

She was thinking this in her heart, and suddenly she heard a familiar voice ringing in her ears.

"Only what?"

"Brother Mo Lian, are you here? Is this the medicinal material I want?" Lin Caisang felt happy and turned to look at Ya Mo Lian. When he saw the medicinal material in Ya Mo Lian's hand, it was like seeing gold. I couldn't be happier.

But Ya Molian was unhappy, her hand holding the medicine bag tightened, and her brows furrowed even more.

"What happened to your face? How did you get hurt?"

Ban Ju never mentioned to him that Xiao Sangzi was injured. Who hurt Xiao Sangzi, Liu Baixiao? Or Liu Rumei?

"It's okay, it's just a minor injury and has been treated with medicine."

Lin Caisang's attention was not focused on his minor injury. He directly took the medical bag from his hand, turned around and went out to find Lin Changfeng who was boiling water in the kitchen.
