Chapter 281 You can't use the knife

In the room, Ya Molian's eyes were gloomy, and she planned to chase him out to ask for details, but she still looked down at Liu Chushui, who was in so much pain that he couldn't even faint. She stretched out her hand and knocked him out with one finger, then strode out. Go.

His little Sangzi is a big-hearted person, and he doesn't think it's a big deal even if his face is hurt.

If it were any other girl, she would have cried so hard that the whole village had no peace. How could she be like her, not feeling any pain at all, and actually have the thought to treat Liu Chushui's injuries!

He has really never seen such a big-hearted person.

Taking a deep breath, he turned around and walked into the yard, intending to go to his uncle's house who didn't keep the door open to explore the situation.

After a while, the medicine was brought to Liu Chushui. Lin Caisang looked at him who was unconscious, and then started to take action. However, when she took out the dagger that Ya Molian had given her to defend herself before, she passed over the flames. , just when he was about to use the knife on Liu Chushui's thigh...

"Sangsang, what are you doing?"

Lin Changhong almost suffered a heart attack from his sister's fright.

"Treat the leg. Don't you know his leg is broken?"

There was nothing wrong with Lin Caisang's words, but in the eyes of others, it was too abnormal. Even Ya Molian, who had always calmly watched Lin Caisang's transformation, looked wrong.

"You can't use the knife even if your leg is broken." Lin Changfeng reminded with fear.

"Can the bones be reattached without cutting the skin and flesh? If the leg bones cannot be reattached, it will take a lifetime." Lin Caisang explained.

Lin Changhong: "..."

Lin Changfeng: "!!!"

This is the first time they have heard that the flesh must be cut open to set the bones. Please forgive them... they have no eyes to see!

"You all can go out. I'll keep an eye on you." Yamo Lian glanced at the two of them, who were so frightened that their calves were shaking, and asked them to come out first.

"good."

Lin Changhong deserved to be called "quick" and ran away as fast as he could.

He knew that there was nothing his sister wanted to do that couldn't be done, but the knife was still used on people. No matter how many prey he hunted, he would still be afraid, so he had better dodge first.

Lin Changfeng also turned around and walked out. In order not to irritate the two elders outside, he closed the door Qiran.

He didn't have the guts to use a knife on someone's body.

In the blink of an eye, an hour passed. With Lin Caisang's method, it was already a long time to treat an injury. If it weren't for the fact that there was nothing available, it would be faster.

After coaxing the two elders waiting in the yard to go to bed, Lin Caisang washed his face, told his eldest brother a few words and went back to his room.

After being tired all day, her eyelids were about to fight.

However, when I saw the neighbor who had left and come back in the room, all the sleepiness on my body disappeared in an instant.

"Does it still hurt?"

Ya Molian slowly approached her, looked at the injuries on her face, raised her hand to touch it, but did not dare to touch it. She scolded Lin Caihe thousands of times in her heart, and finally remembered that when did he behave like a woman? Yes, I feel like I'm cursing people in my heart.

I felt a little embarrassed, but mostly angry.

"It's medicine. I made the medicine powder myself and added analgesics in it. It doesn't hurt." Lin Caisang replied.

"She shouldn't have been spared so lightly!" Ya Molian gritted his teeth.

Lin Caisang was stunned. He didn't expect him to know so quickly that his face was hurt by Lin Caisang? At this speed, is there a wireless monitor installed around her?
