

Star of Space 286

Chapter 286 I'm exhausted after going up the mountain once

"It's not like you don't know that the root cause of the disease was discovered during the third aunt's growth. Otherwise, why did she get pregnant after so many years? The prescription I wrote added a few more tonics to replenish the body of the third aunt.

She was afraid that even ten taels of silver would not be enough!

Originally she wanted to give her twenty taels, but if she took out so much money at once, her family would probably treat her like a monkey, so she had better take her time.

Let's talk about third aunt Yang Lin. If she doesn't have something to make up for it, she will have to suffer when she gives birth to this child. She is also a woman, and Yang Lin treats her so well. Of course she must embrace her and take good care of Yang Lin's body and bones. .

"this....."

"Third uncle, please don't hesitate. No matter how good the money is, it is not as important as the health of the family members. Lin Changhong saw that Lin Baiyi was still hesitant, glanced at his sister, and persuaded.

"I still have some bird's nests that were not sold last year, Sangsang..."

"It's edible. Let's stew some today. Grandma was very angry yesterday. Let's replenish her energy." Lin Caisang answered immediately.

Lin Baiyi: "..."

Come on, these two brothers and sisters are really sensible and filial. Even their uncle and aunt can enjoy their happiness, and Changfeng has made proper arrangements. What else can he say.

Thinking back to my unfulfilled daughter...

Forget it, I didn't want to think about it anymore. After collecting the money, I went to the kitchen to get two wobou and prepared to drive the ox cart to the town.

In the morning, Lin Caisang went to Ya Molian's house.

Now that there was Zhong Youzai, people in the village said that she and Ya Molian rescued him together. It was natural for her to visit Ya Molian's house, so she went in openly.

After Zhong You picked out all the broken things from the wounds all over her body, she breathed a sigh of relief.

"Brother Mo Lian, you are so good. You can do so well even after seeing it once." She raised a thumbs up to Ya Mo Lian and praised.

Hearing this, Ya Molian just raised his eyebrows and said nothing.

Fortunately, Liu Chushui is nominally this girl's younger brother. Although I don't know if he is a relative and he is still young, this one here has nothing to do with Xiao Sangzi.

Can he let his little wife raise and lower her hands to a man?

The answer is of course impossible!

Therefore, in the end, he had to do it himself, and it was just a superficial matter. It was not like what she did yesterday, where the whole piece of flesh was cut open and the blood inside was clearly visible. Finally, An Ran can be sutured.

He also admired Xiao Sangzi.

"Eating here for lunch?"

he asks.

"No."

Lin Caisang shook his head and refused.

"My third aunt is pregnant again. According to my third uncle's temperament, I will definitely not buy anything when I go to town. I want to go to the mountains to see if I can get anything. Pregnant people have to take care of themselves, right? "

What she didn't say was that besides wanting to go up the mountain to get some food, the most important thing was to see if there were any smoother rocks on the mountain. She needed it urgently!

"I'll go with you."

Ya Molian said almost immediately.

Lin Caisang: "..."

I'm looking for rocks, what are you doing with me? Do you want to watch me find stones and throw them into the golden bead space?

"No, Zhong You is still at home. I'll be right back." She refused.

After listening to her words, he knew that she had other motives for going to the mountain, so he said nothing more and nodded.

Lin Caisang is so exhausted after just one trip up the mountain. This is what Lin Caisang looks like now.
