

Star of Space 29

Chapter 29 Don't worry about eating well and drinking spicy food

But looking at Sang Sang's condition now, he definitely won't leave the kitchen. Is it possible to let him rush? Of course that's impossible.

"Sangsang..."

"Brother Changfeng, please beat two eggs later to make egg custard, and make another small bowl for grandpa to eat, and..."

"Sangsang..."

Lin Changfeng turned around helplessly and looked at Lin Caisang, who was thinking casually.

"You've said it twice, Brother Changfeng is not a fool. Go ahead and play outside. Grandma will be back soon and I have to cook."

Lin Caisang: "..."

Is she really that wordy to be so disliked?

"Okay, I'm going to the room."

Touching her nose, she felt inexplicably guilty. In fact, she was really wordy.

But there is no way, she is bored, there are only two people at home, Brother Changfeng and Grandpa, is it possible for her to go to Grandpa and talk endlessly?

"Oh, by the way, Brother Changfeng, if I ask about it later, you must say that these wild eggs are..."

"I went to the mountain to pick it up."

Lin Changfeng took what she said, holding a spatula in his hand and looking at her helplessly.

Lin Caisang stopped talking and walked out silently. She should go back to her room to study her Golden Bead Space. She didn't believe that such a precious space really couldn't grow plants!

When she came to the yard, she looked sideways at the clearly visible house next door, "I wonder how Brother Mo Lian is doing? Why is there no movement at all?"

Ya Molian was found unconscious and was sent back to her home. Shouldn't she have passed in front of their home?

But now, there is no movement at all.

"Did no one discover it?"

Immediately, she shook her head, instinctively denying this possibility.

If such a big person is lying there, no one will notice? With such good weather, there will be more people cutting hogweed in the afternoon and reclaiming the land, right? It's impossible not to be discovered.

So why?

Shaking her head, she had already saved the person and had repaid her kindness. Other things were not what she should think about.

Turn around, enter your room and close the door.

In Ya Molian's house, several people were standing at the bedside, looking at Ya Molian who was still in a coma.

"Dad, what do you think we should do? Is it possible that... my daughter really wants... to do this? Then she will be dragged into the pig cage by the patriarch?" The girl who was about fifteen or sixteen years old looked hesitant. He looked at Ya Molian lying on the bed and asked the man next to him.

"Sister, if you don't want to, I'll do it."

Behind him, after hearing the eldest sister's hesitant words, another little girl rushed out immediately, looking at Ya Molian with golden eyes.

Although this Ya Molian has an unknown life experience and is just an adopted orphan, who doesn't know that he is the most powerful bird's nest picker in the village besides Lin Baizhong.

Moreover, he is good at hunting and often goes hunting in the mountains when it is not the season for collecting bird's nests.

Those can be sold for a lot of money. Who wouldn't be happy to marry such a man?

If she didn't have an eldest sister above her, she would have been happy to do so. But now that she heard her eldest sister hesitate, she dared to stand up.

"Go, if you need anything, just stay here."

When the man heard his second daughter's voice, he glared at her with disapproval on his face.

"I don't even look at your face. Can Yamolian like you? Only your eldest sister has this blessing. Nian'er, you have also seen such a good opportunity. If you can seize it, you will be popular in the future. Don't worry about drinking spicy food. What are you still hesitating about?"
