Chapter 291 Not sure whether it's illness or poisoning

After thinking about it, I decided to take the big meal of meat back to the room first. At least I could think of a way, or find someone to eat it with. Anyway, she was grateful now.

The fat on her body has finally disappeared, and I can see that I have gained a bit of figure, but I am still fat, weighing at least 120 pounds. In her words, 'the revolution has not yet succeeded, comrades still need to work hard'.

You should never give up halfway as a human being.

He took the bowl of rice from Lu Qiubo's hand, and without fear of burning his hands, he quickly returned to his room and closed the door tightly.

"scare!"

When he turned around, he saw a certain neighbor sitting on his bed openly again, and almost threw the bowl in his hand.

I saw a shadow flashing before my eyes, and my hands were empty. Ya Molian held the bowl in one hand, and held the little girl over with the other. The two of them sat in front of the small table, and the bowl of fragrant chicken was also placed on the table. .

"Eat as much as you can. It makes me feel bad to see you losing weight so fast." He picked up a chicken drumstick and handed it to her, he said softly.

Seeing that he had said this, the chicken drumstick was already put to her mouth. Wouldn't it be too pretentious for her not to eat it?

"Then you eat the rest."

Taking the chicken leg, she looked at him with a small mouth and said.

"Send it to your cousin later." Ya Molian said.

"That's fine."

Lin Caisang thought for a while and nodded.

Ever since her family paid her share of the money, her grandma was a person who kept her word. Even though she said she would not add food to the family, she actually kept it. The wild eggs she picked up were treated as filial piety to her third aunt, and she only gave them to her third aunt. Aunt eats alone.

The best dish at home was cured pork. When she first arrived here, Ya Molian gave her half of the wild boar.

"Actually, grandma really doesn't have to worry about my health. I have prepared my own medicine and drank it. Even if I want to lose weight, it won't break my body. But I can't tell grandma this."

If grandma knew she was taking medicine, she would definitely jump up and become even more worried.

"Yeah, that's all I know." Ya Molian responded.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Brother Melian, where is your face?

Although she told him most of the reasons, he deserves to be so smooth, is that really okay?

"I thought you went to collect bird's nests with everyone today, why are you here free?" she asked.

"Normally I don't pick bird's nests with everyone." Ya Molian replied.

He is very busy, and only occasionally goes to the mountains to show his face. More often, he goes to the mountains to collect bird's nests, all of whom are easily relegated to his appearance.

"I'm looking for you to ask for help with something. I don't know if it's possible."

"what's up?"

Lin Caisang took a bite of the chicken leg and asked.

Although the relationship between them is pretty good now, what's the point of getting points for doing things for others, what if it's not a good thing?

So although she wanted to answer, she still felt that she should ask first.

"One of my subordinates has been suffering from a strange disease recently. The doctor under me is not sure whether it is an illness or poisoning." Ya Molian stared at her with burning eyes and explained what happened around her.

"That person...isn't here?" Lin Caisang asked.

If it were here, Ya Molian would not do this. He should invite her to his home and then directly discuss with her about seeing the patient.

"It's a bit far away. I don't want you to go there." Ya Molian nodded.

Wherever he wanted Xiao Sangzi to go, there was naturally a way, but there were some things that he still didn't want Xiao Sangzi to get involved in too early.
