

Star of Space 294

Chapter 294 His reputation is ruined

He thought that Lin Laogan meant to release Lin Caihe from the firewood shed, but now that Yang Lin was pregnant, that girl hated everyone in the family again. If there was any evil, how could he dare.

"Who can rest assured if she is released?"

Lin Laojie asked his son without hesitation.

"There was no one at home at noon yesterday. I wanted to bring some water to that girl, but I didn't know... that girl was muttering about your wife, her mother had a baby in her belly, so she didn't want her as a daughter. Well, tell me, can I trust you to let her go?"

Yesterday, he was so scared that he wanted to mention it in front of his wife, but Lu Qiubo was impatient. If he really mentioned it to her, the family would be in chaos again.

"What?"

Lin Baiyi almost jumped up from his stool when he heard his father's words.

Fortunately, his wife couldn't sleep at night because of that girl being locked up, and she couldn't eat well during the day. This girl was really fooled by lard. Why was she so unwilling to see her family members well?

"She...this dead girl!"

"Don't talk about her either. Our whole family has spoiled her." Lin Laogan shook his head and sighed again.

"I thought that because I wanted to care for Sangsang, I couldn't treat He girl badly. After all, both girls are the granddaughters of our old Lin family. It would be bad if either one was left behind. I never thought..."

Obviously they are raised in the same way, but Sangsang and He Yatou are really not the same at all. 【

"This girl's temperament is exactly the same as your second brother's."

He finally understood.

"Then...Dad, what do you think we should do?" Lin Baiyi asked.

After all, she is his daughter, so she can't just kick her out like her father treated her second brother, right?

Besides, of course, the second brother also left on his own, which made his father and mother sad for a long time. This time he came back at an older age and could support himself, so he didn't let them come back to live there.

"I called you here just to discuss it with you. Girl He is now thirteen this year. It's time to find a husband for her." Lin Laogeng looked at his son steadily and said quietly.

Hearing this, Lin Baiyi's first thought was: Who would be unlucky to marry his daughter who was always causing trouble? Who would dare to marry her?

But when I look back and think about it, she is my biological daughter after all, so it is not good to dislike her so much. I have to find a good family for her.

"This... Dad, Sangsang is older than He girl. If He girl gets engaged first, will it happen..."

"Won't."

Lin Laogong denied what he said.

"Sang Sang's engagement with the Zhou family has just been broken off. If we really find her husband's family again now, there will be gossip outside. It doesn't matter if we wait a little longer, but He girl can't wait any longer. , Because of what happened last time, it has spread in the village, right? If we don't find a husband soon, He girl will be here..."

What kind of in-laws can I find? Their reputation is so bad.

"Then I'll ask Aunt Guihua?" Lin Baiyi suggested.

In fact, he is also worried about his daughter's marriage. If she continues to deal with it like this, there will be no reputation at all. Whether she can get married or not is a question.

"You should discuss this with your wife first and talk to her." Lin Laogeng explained.

"She is pregnant with the child now, so she can't have any more fetal contractions. Tell her carefully and don't make her angry because of this matter. If she doesn't agree, forget it and just pretend that your father didn't say anything."
