

Star of Space 297

Chapter 297 Let's wait and see

When she thought of Lin Caihe, the person who even wanted to harm her cousin, she felt sick in her heart. Thinking about how well Lin Caisang treated Lin Caihe, who in the village didn't see it?

But as for Lin Caihe, a wolf-hearted person. Ever since he heard about what happened to Liu Baixiao's family, who in the village would not do anything for Lin Caihe?

That is to say, looking at those twenty eggs, otherwise, how could she have taken on such a troublesome thing? It was a headache!

"Mom, why don't you just treat Sangsang as a favor? If it hadn't been for Sangsang this year, our family would still be chewing tree bark." Yaguihua's daughter-in-law looked at her mother-in-law with a smile and said.

Lin Caisang's Manghuang Mountain was disturbed, but it saved the lives of many people in the village. Everyone knows what the situation was like last year. The food had been eaten up long ago, so they could only dig wild vegetables to satisfy their hunger.

But with so many people in the village, how could there be so many wild vegetables?

"If it weren't for Sangsang's sake, do you think I would agree?" Ya Guihua said angrily.

It's weird for a girl like Lin Caihe to be able to get married. The groom's family doesn't have any eyesight, unless he marries to a harsh place where men can't marry a daughter-in-law. It's a girl. Just want to marry.

"Come on, just think of it as doing a good deed for Sang Sang. Marrying this girl will save Sang Sang from being a stranger at home and outside."

"Then I'll ask you to go and give He girl a hand. Let's see if any of our sons from all over the country are short of a wife. They can ask someone to come and propose marriage later." Ya Guihua's daughter-in-law said.

At Yaguihua's house, the mother-in-law and daughter-in-law began to discuss, but Lu Qiubo and Lin Baiyi, who had returned home, came to Lin Laogan.

"What's going on? Is the matter done?" Lin Laogan asked.

"Dad, it's not as easy as you said."

Lin Baiyi opened a bitter mouth and looked at his biological father.

"You didn't see Aunt Guihua's face. Her face changed when she heard that it was Wei He who was proposing a kiss."

"real?"

Lin Laojie's face darkened and he looked at Lu Qiubo.

"How can it be false?" Lu Qiubo replied angrily.

If she hadn't been clever enough to take out twenty eggs at once, mother and son might have been driven out by Ya Guihua.

It was also at that time that she realized that her granddaughter's reputation in the village was already so embarrassing that even the matchmaker's face darkened when she heard about it.

"Then this marriage..."

Lin Laogong felt a little thump in his heart when he heard this, and then asked.

"Aunt Osmanthus said she would be more considerate, let's just wait and see." Lin Baiyi said.

"OK."

Lin Laogong let out a long breath.

"Just find a good family."

"Come on, old man, you are still thinking about finding a good family. Don't you think that your granddaughter is quite capable when you look at your granddaughter who has not yet been able to reach the sky and pick the stars and the moon?"

Lu Qiubo rolled his eyes at his old man.

Fortunately, it would be great if she could find someone to marry into. As for someone from a good family or a bad family, she had no hope.

"Is that my granddaughter?"

Lin Laogong also sighed, what else could he say.

The palms and backs of his hands were full of flesh, and it would hurt wherever he was cut. Even if he did something wrong, she was his granddaughter after all, right?

"Dad, if you don't keep an eye on your granddaughter, you may be killed." Lin Baiyi said.
