

Star of Space 306

Chapter 306 Everyone must die!

Therefore, you cannot give up every opportunity to make money. If you can earn one or two, it is one or two. Who would worry about burning their hands if they have too much money? "

She finally got a break and turned around to take a look at Ya Molian.

"Brother Mo Lian, do you think you earn too much?"

Ya Molian: "!!!"

He shouldn't have asked this question, he would have known such an answer.

"When you make these things, you might as well make some spices. No matter where you are, spices are needed by everyone, from the mosquito repellent powder that ordinary people need to the incense that the children of nobles need. On the contrary, what you are talking about now Those... skin-beautifying lotions, skin-nourishing powders, these are all used on girls' faces. If they are not from someone they are familiar with, no one will buy them with confidence, and they probably won't be sold.

he said.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang held her chubby hand that had lost a lot of weight while holding the medicinal materials, and looked at Ya Molian hesitantly.

"Brother Mo Lian, it seems like it's really what you said."

It would be fine if she had a serious medicine shop. The key point is that this is her first time in Jian'an City, and she is still setting up a stall on the street. People might think she is a liar.

It seems that selling skin beauty lotion and skin nourishing powder is not feasible.

"I have an idea."

Suddenly, her eyes lit up.

It's not feasible to sell these two things, but didn't Yamolian just say that spices are needed by everyone? As long as she can refine these medicinal materials into spices and integrate them into skin beauty lotion and skin nourishing powder, wouldn't it be enough? alright.

And you don't need to smear it on your body. You can just light it with the incense burner. How convenient.

"Made them into spices and sell them as spices."

With that said, she started to take action.

Ya Molian saw her busy and didn't even have time to drink water, so she could only smile and retreat.

"Palace Master, there is news from the servant that something happened in Jian'an."

In the courtyard, Ban Jue had been waiting outside without leaving. When he saw his palace master coming out, he hurriedly greeted him.

"What's the matter?"

Ya Molian frowned and asked him.

"Princess Liang was poisoned by a chronic poison, it was gangrene." Ban Jue replied.

Hearing this, Ya Molian's eyes darkened, and her hands behind her body clenched tightly, and then quickly relaxed, "He finally took action."

"Yes, Palace Master, should we..." Ban Jue looked at his Palace Master's expression, seemingly expressionless, but he knew that the Palace Master was angry, and at this moment he was probably filled with rage.

"No need."

Ya Molian raised her hand to interrupt him.

"I ordered the servant to keep an eye on her. As long as the eldest princess is alive, she is not allowed to interfere. We only need the head of the person who did it!" He said coldly.

Under his nose, touching the eldest princess of Liang Kingdom, the most beloved sister of the Emperor of Liang Kingdom, was a blatant challenge to him. If he didn't accept the challenge, how could he be able to gain a foothold in Liang Kingdom in the future?

The person who did this, no matter who is behind him, must die!

"Yes, Palace Master."

Ban Jue responded and prepared to leave.

But just as he took a step forward, he thought of Miss Lin next to his palace master, and he turned back to look at his palace master.

"Palace Master, do you need someone from your subordinates to protect Miss Lin?"

He felt that this girl Lin Caisang was not a mortal, but wherever she walked, there would always be a few unscrupulous people who wanted to get some benefits from Miss Lin.
