

Star of Space 346

Chapter 346 Stayed up all night?

"is it possible?"

Ya Molian stopped and looked at her steadily.

"This is not just talk, Xiao Sangzi. Although 'Hui Gang', 'Jubi' and 'Luowei' are not highly poisonous, no matter which one is taken alone, they are all strange poisons. If you want to use the same antidote The medicine can cure three poisons at the same time, which is even more difficult than reaching the sky."

"Try it."

Lin Caisang naturally knew how difficult it was, but how would he know if he hadn't tried it?

"I already have a rough idea in my mind. If I don't get the eldest princess's blood, I'll try it first. If it doesn't work, I'll think of other ways. Then I'll have to ask you for help, go find 'Hui Gang' I have the antidote. As for the antidote for 'cliff', I can make it myself.

Although she can also make the antidote for 'pain gangrene', if the two antidotes are refined at the same time, she doesn't have so much time and can only ask Ya Molian for help.

"good."

Yamolian nodded.

"I'll take you home first."

...

In the past few days, Lu Qiubo and the others knew that their granddaughter was very tired and couldn't find the medicinal materials she needed. They were upset, so they did not disturb her and urged her to have dinner and then rest.

Lin Caisang was not pretentious. It was not yet dark and he was already in the Golden Pearl Space.

First of all, what she had to do was to boil the medicines she had taken from the pharmacy of the Princess's Mansion into an ointment, so that she could deliver the medicines to Aunt Bai early tomorrow morning and drink them directly in water.

She was also shocked today, because the medicine she prepared almost harmed the eldest princess, so the medicines in the future can only go through her own hands.

But she still had to develop an antidote, so she didn't have much time, so she thought of a way to boil the medicine into a paste, which could be dissolved by soaking it in warm water, making it convenient to drink.

The moment the door was opened, the dazzling sunlight shone on her whole body. Lin Caisang raised her palms to cover her eyes.

"What's wrong with you? You didn't sleep all night?"

Ya Molian had been waiting in the Lin family's yard early in the morning. Seeing her tired look, she stepped forward and expressed concern.

"It's okay. After studying it all night, I finally have a clue."

After shaking her head, she changed her gesture to kneading her eyebrows. She had not slept all night, and she had lost some blood before, so she was indeed a little tired, but it didn't matter.

"Why is there no one at home?"

Although she got up late today, she found that there was no one in her yard today.

Even grandpa, who used to wait for her in the yard and watch her go out, was not at home. The house was so quiet that there seemed to be no mouse at all. What kind of situation was this?

It's still raining outside. What are the whole family doing out there? It's really strange.

"You've already gone out? You didn't even say a word to me."

"Have you forgotten? Today is the day for planting. Everyone should be outside looking at their crops. I guess I didn't wake you up because you were too tired." Ya Molian reminded her.

I don't know since when in Ye County, the solar term of Mangzhong has become very important. People go to the fields to see the crops they grow, and then offer three bowls of rice and some hot dishes as a way to ask the Bodhisattva to bless their crops. The harvest can be better.

"Is it today?"

Lin Caisang blinked, her life was really worse than that of Ya Molian, a man.

"Then you want to go to the fields too?" she asked.

"Not going."

Ya Molian replied without thinking.
