

Star of Space 348

Chapter 348 Are you the only one who has run out of energy?

Lin Caisang: "..."

She didn't say she wanted to test the poison herself. Why not find a few rabbits or something to test the poison?

"What I mean is that I will first find a few rabbits or other animals to test the poison. After it is successful, I will fuse the poison into the eldest princess' body." She explained.

If she dares to try poison, will her brother Mo Lian spare her? Believe it or not, he just slapped her away.

"Oh, oh, that's it." The great prince breathed a sigh of relief.

But he was still worried, could this animal have the same body as a human? What if it's different?

But what can be done differently? Now I can only rely on Lin Caisang.

"Then... I will order people to go and prepare all the medicine.

...

In the bamboo house.

"One, two, three...nine, ten."

Ten gray rabbits squatted side by side, obediently letting Lin Caisang take care of them. All the vegetables placed in front of them had been eaten.

Soon, all ten rabbits side by side fell down sickly, and the air intake was still too much.

"Little Sangzi, this one is out of breath."

Ya Molian was beside her, and when she saw a rabbit closing its eyes and not breathing, she reminded her.

"Leave it for now, I'll feed the others some medicine first." Lin Caisang didn't even look at the rabbit, and continued to bring ten different soups in his hand.

The vegetables she fed to the rabbit just now were mixed with the poisonous blood of the eldest princess, and now the ten different portions in her hands were decoctions that could combine three poisons. She had to feed them one by one.

"I come."

Ya Molian stretched out her hand to get a bowl of soup, but was stopped by Lin Caisang.

"Don't move. The dosages of these decoctions are all different. I feed them and drink them myself. I know it clearly. Just pay attention and wait for the breathing of the rabbit who has been fed the decoction."

Lin Caisang said to him.

"good."

Ya Molian took her hand back and nodded.

Soon, Lin Caisang poured bowls of soup into the mouths of the nine rabbits, paying close attention to their changes.

...

After about an hour, all nine rabbits were still breathing, which made Lin Caisang let out a sigh of relief.

This at least proves that her medical skills are recognized by the rabbits. Otherwise, they would not be able to see the sun tomorrow if she gave them medicine like this.

"Brother Mo Lian, which rabbit has the smoothest breathing?" She looked up at Ya Mo Lian and asked.

She can make poisons and medicines, and she can boast about her medical skills, but looking at the breathing of a few rabbits... let her go. She doesn't have that talent, so she has to rely on Yamolian.

Ya Molian immediately pointed to the third rabbit, "This one."

Lin Caisang took out a hangtag he had made before and hung it on the rabbit's foot.

"What else?" she asked again.

"The last one is this one." Ya Molian pointed at the seventh rabbit.

Lin Caisang put the two pointed rabbits into one cage and the other seven into another cage. Only then did he take the lifeless rabbit into his hands.

"Where did you go wrong?" she asked the rabbit.

The medicine fed to the little rabbits before should not have poisoned it directly, but it was really dead.

"The same poison was poured into your stomachs, and you're the only one who has no energy?"

Why doesn't she believe it? Could it be that her medical skills have deteriorated? It's impossible. She doesn't accept this fact. There must be something wrong in other aspects, or she feeds too many poisonous vegetables.
