Chapter 349 Eating rabbit meat at night?

"It's just a rabbit, don't worry about it.

Seeing Lin Caisang staring at the rabbit in his hand with a puzzled expression, Ya Molian tried to persuade her.

"How can this be a problem with a rabbit? If it were a human, it would be... no, I have to find the reason." Lin Caisang shook his head and said with unusual certainty.

Coming out of the room, she locked herself in another room and began to study the non-breathing rabbit.

Soon, she found out why.

"Brother Mo Lian, who caught this rabbit? Executed?"

She walked out of the room and asked Ya Molian who was waiting for her in the yard.

"Exiled."

Ya Molian shouted towards the yard, and then he touched his nose and walked out innocently.

"Miss Lin, you didn't say that these rabbits should be unharmed, so this subordinate...ahem." He coughed twice in embarrassment.

At that time, he just thought that the palace master and Miss Lin wanted rabbits, and the faster the better, so he went to the forest to catch rabbits. In order to speed up the rabbits, hitting them with stones would naturally hurt the rabbits.

Only one rabbit was injured, and he had already perfected his skills.

Hearing this, Ya Molian glanced at Ban Jue with stern eyes, and the meaning in her eyes couldn't be more obvious: If you can't handle such a small thing, you can go back to your mother's womb and rebuild!

Banishment: "..."

Although the palace master said that he was wrong, he must have done something wrong, but why did he still feel that he was not wrong.

"It would be nice to find the reason.

Lin Caisang didn't pay much attention to these details and casually handed the rabbit in his hand to Ban Jue.

"Burn it?" she asked.

"Eating rabbit meat at night?" Ban Jue asked immediately.

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

I have never seen anyone seeking death come to her and eat rabbit meat. Fortunately, he could say such a thing.

"The three poisons 'Hui Gang', 'Jubi' and 'Luowei' are all in its body. Do you want to eat it at night?"
Don't you want to live anymore?

"Well."

Ban Jue was not choked by Lin Caisang's words, but was frightened by his own thoughts.

Recently, Miss Lin was here and she was better at eating, which made him forget that this rabbit was full of poison.

"Then...Miss Lin, what will happen to this rabbit?"

"Create it and find a place with good feng shui to bury its ashes." Lin Caisang explained.

Banishment: "..."

Miss Lin, could it be that what he is holding is not actually a gray rabbit, but a person?

It was just a rabbit, but he was actually asked to find a place with good feng shui to bury it. Was this an attempt to punish him?

"Go and do it."

Ya Molian glanced at the embarrassed face.

"Yes, Master."

What can he do if he is banished? The master of his palace has said so, so he can only do as he is told.

Poor him, he could only hold the rabbit in his hand and find a hole with good feng shui for it, but why?

"Next, you want to develop a solution?"

After Ban Jue left, Ya Molian walked up to her and asked.

"We have to let them stay here for one night, and we can collect blood to develop a solution tomorrow morning." Lin Caisang nodded and replied.

"Then let's go home early today." Ya Molian said.

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded.

Today is Engzhong, so it's no longer appropriate to go out and be busy with the princess' affairs. You have to go home early.

...

In the Lin family, Lin Changfeng from Menghuang Mountain was called down. Even Zhong You came down and was helping Lu Qiubo in the kitchen.
