

Star of Space 35

Chapter 35 It shouldn't be Uncle San, but you

"Third uncle, you are so awesome!"

After hearing his words, Lin Caisang immediately raised his thumb at Lin Baiyi happily.

"But please don't let grandpa and grandma know about this, third uncle."

Originally, there was nothing wrong with telling Lin Laogan and Lin Lushi about this. Anyway, it was her idea and her eldest brother was the one who handled the matter. As a child, it was understandable to be a bit noisy. Since Lin Lushi wanted to blame, she still She's taking care of it.

But now that the third uncle has got involved in this matter, the nature is different!

If grandma knew that if the relationship between grandma and second uncle eased one day, grandma would definitely blame third uncle.

"I know, I won't let your grandma know." Lin Baiyi nodded solemnly.

He is not stupid. Of all the bad things Liu Baixiao has done over the years, which one has been known to his parents? Didn't he just admit it after being discovered? The same goes for selling mulberry this time.

If not discovered, who would know?

Naturally, he would not be stupid enough to expose his tail and let his parents catch him.

"If your grandma knew, it wouldn't be so easy for us to do things."

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded and responded.

"However, although those people can spread the news about the second uncle, we can't rely on them. Brother, I think you should go to Qianlin County to walk around more in the past few days. As for the third uncle, there is no need to go. .

She looked at Lin Changhong and said.

"I will."

Lin Changhong agreed to her words.

"I'll go find Brother Mo Lian later to see if he won't go hunting in the mountains tomorrow morning. If he does, I'll go to the mountains in the morning and go to the county in the afternoon to inquire about the situation."

You can also earn some money for your family.

"Uncle Third, I have something I want you to help me make. This is a drawing I drew. You can take a look at it tonight to see if you can do it." Lin Caisang looked at Lin Baiyi and took the papers on the table next to him. , handed it to him.

"This is....."

Lin Baiyi took it and looked at a few pictures, but frowned.

"Sangsang, what do you want to use these things for? They are wheels and wooden boards. What are you... doing?"

Although he is a carpenter, he has never seen anything like this before, and he doesn't know what Lin Caisang is using it for, but it looks like it is used to assemble it into something.

What could it be?

"Let me see."

Lin Changhong also came to join in the fun and turned his head to look.

"Hey, Sangsang, are you making a chair? It's just that there are wheels under this chair. Isn't it for our grandpa?"

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

Brother, why do I think it's not my third uncle who should be learning carpentry, but you?

There are just these fragmentary wooden accessories. Just by looking at them, you can tell that they are for wheelchairs. Can you also guess that they are made for grandpa? I admire no one but you.

She raised her thumb towards Lin Changhong.

"My grandpa has been lying in bed for more than three years. Except when my third uncle is free, he doesn't see the sun for a few days all year round. I just thought about making him a rolling chair so that he can push it around by himself. , In this way, grandpa can get some fresh air in his own yard instead of being bored in his room all the time."

she said.

After hearing her words, Lin Baiyi and Lin Changhong's eyes lit up at the same time.

"Uncle Third, this carpentry job is your specialty. You can definitely do it. If you don't understand anything, just come and ask me." Lin Caisang said again.

"Don't worry, Sangsang, these things will be taken care of by Third Uncle. I promise to make sure they are done well."
