Chapter 358 I harmed him

Speaking of this, Lin Caisang's complexion turned green, and his eyes looking at Ya Molian suddenly changed.

"You don't mean to say that the 'Jijioginseng' grows in Youxiang River, do you?"

"It doesn't grow in the river, but on the ice. However, the root system of the 'Ultimate Hell Ginseng' is guarded by the strange fish 'Phoenix' in the river. As long as someone encounters the 'Ultimate Hell Ginseng', the 'Phoenix Puppet' in the river will burst out of the ice and bite people to pieces."

Ya Molian said.

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

Just listening to Ya Molian say this, she felt her hair stand on end.

"Have you ever been there?" she asked.

The poison on Ya Molian also needs the 'Ultimate Hell Ginseng' to stabilize it. She knows this, but judging from the current poisoning situation, she has never taken the 'Ultimate Hell Ginseng' at all.

It can be seen that it was not collected.

Ya Molian nodded her head lightly.

"Two years ago, I couldn't survive the relapse of my old drug, so I went to Youxiang River to collect a pearl of 'Jihe Ginseng', but I brought ten people with me. In the end, I only had Ban Jue and Ban Wu. The two of them came back with me. It's okay to banish Jue, but banish him to Wu..."

"This is the one we saw last time. He was relegated to martial arts?" Lin Caisang asked.

"When I saw him last time, I saw that he exuded a faint feminine power. He was frozen for too long when he was in Youxiang River. He injured his body and did not receive timely treatment. I am afraid that he will be injured in the future. It is difficult to have heirs.

She saw it that day, but Ya Molian didn't mention it, so she couldn't say much.

Ya Molian nodded and took a deep breath.

"I hurt him."

"You can't say that."

Lin Caisang shook his head and rejected his idea.

"Since they have followed you, they regard you as their master, and they are willing to do anything for you. Didn't you say that you saved them in the first place? Then think about it, if you didn't save them in the first place, why would you be here now? Where are they?"

Ya Molian naturally knew this truth, but knowing it, the guilt in her heart could not disappear.

"I see."

Lin Caisang looked at him steadily and sighed softly.

"No, you don't understand."

What could he understand? He had no idea what it meant to be able to tell someone's condition from her mouth.

"Let's do this. In order to reduce the guilt in your heart, after I have cured the eldest princess, I will let you go and treat Ban Wu to see if there is any way to remedy it."

Hearing this, Ya Molian's eyes instantly lit up.

"Can it be remedied?" he asked.

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded.

"I generally don't discuss other people's illnesses at will. Just like the poison on your body, if I can't cure it for the time being, I won't mention it. And your banished warrior, his body is not incurable yet."

"What medicine is needed?" he asked.

"I haven't even seen the patient, how do I know what medicine to prescribe?" Lin Caisang asked him funny.

"What kind of medicine to prescribe depends on each person. You can't prescribe the same medicine to different people with the same disease. You have to see the person first and diagnose the pulse before you can prescribe medicine to treat the disease. Otherwise, you think I am a god. Can you figure out how to treat the patient just by pinching your fingers?"

She didn't know if others had such ability. Anyway, she thought she didn't have such ability.

"Then I'll order him to come over." Ya Molian said.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang was stunned for a moment. He didn't expect Ya Molian to be so impatient, but he still felt more than a little bit guilty about banishing Wu.
