Chapter 363 Stay with me here

"Then force him to hand it over." Lin Caisang said.

A person who can do this to a child, how could he be so kind to him? Just hold a knife to his neck and trade one life for another to see if he will not even take his own life.

In this way, her broken golden bead will be frozen, and the poison on Yamolian's body can be detoxified anyway.

"Sonny, not everyone can force you."

Ya Molian put down the kitchen knife, raised her hand and gently rubbed her head a few times, and spoke with a smile.

"What's more, no one knows whether this antidote exists or not. There are many poisons that have no antidote. Don't you also know that the poison on my body is difficult to cure?"

Hearing this, Lin Caisang fell silent. Indeed, with her current ability, she could not cure the poison on Ya Molian.

"Then we have to go to Youxiang River?"

She really didn't want him to make this trip to Youxiang River.

"Is there any relationship between the two?" Ya Molian looked at her, stopped again, and asked her.

Is the poison on his body related to his going to Youxiang River? Why didn't he know?

However, if he could get the 'Ultimate Hell Ginseng', at least the poison on his body could be alleviated, which was not a loss for him.

"Of course it does."

Lin Caisang nodded, not intending to hide too much from him.

"It's like this. I'm taking on the task of treating patients and saving people right now. The more tasks I take on, the more medical skills I can learn. If I fail this task, I won't be able to take on tasks in the future, and my medical skills will probably end here. , I'm afraid I won't be able to cure your poison.

She spread her hands and said bluntly.

Hearing her words, Ya Molian looked at her with softer eyes, and a faint smile spread on her face.

"So, you thought about letting the mission fail?"

Just because he said he was going to Youxiang River, she would rather fail her mission than let him take risks? Is it just because the consequences of failing the mission were closely related to him that she finally had to hold her tongue and let him go to Youxiang River?

"That's a narrow escape...ah! Look at my mouth."

She quickly raised her hand and patted her mouth, stuck out her tongue, and looked at him helplessly.

"If there is any other way, I really don't want you to go, but you don't want to take me with you, so I'm worried."

"What's there to worry about? I'm still waiting for you to marry me and be my wife in two years. How can anything happen?" Ya Molian said with a smile.

With her words, what else could he not accomplish? How could a small Youxiang River stump him?

"you--"

Lin Caisang's eyes suddenly widened, his face turned red to the ears, and he stamped his foot.

"You're talking nonsense there again, I don't want to care about you anymore!"

With that said, she was about to leave the kitchen and go to the Jinzhu Space to prepare some things. Unexpectedly, before her feet moved, he stretched out his arm and wrapped it around her waist.

"What are you doing again?"

She turned to look at him angrily and asked.

"I still have something to do."

"Stay with me here."

Ya Molian let go of her and continued her movements.

"How old are you, and you still have someone to accompany you, are you ashamed?" Lin Caisang stared at his profile and muttered a few words.

But in the end, she was reluctant to leave, so she stayed with him in the kitchen, watching him turn the green vegetables into plates of delicious food, and then put them in front of her to seduce her. Both of them felt warm in their hearts. smile.
