Chapter 370 No Antidote

"This person who administered the drug is so vicious. He knows that given your body, any poison he wants to give you may kill you in an instant. No one can guarantee that you will survive.

But the 'drug' is different. Its medicinal properties will only amplify the pain on your body when the poison is released in your body, making it unbearable and you will go to the person who poisoned you for temporary relief. An antidote for relieving toxicity in the body.

And you will always be controlled by him because of this 'drug'. "

After listening to her words, Ya Molian's hand on the table knocked on the table so hard that her thin lips were bitten. The big hand holding her under the table was also squeezed tightly and trembling a little.

"and....."

Lin Caisang hesitated for a moment, not sure whether he should say the next sentence.

"There's no antidote to 'priming'."

Jiang Zuo on the side spoke directly for her.

"There's no antidote? How could there be no antidote?" Ban Jue was shocked and immediately looked at Lin Caisang.

"Miss Lin, your detoxification skills are so powerful, this 'attracting poison'..."

"There is indeed no antidote. No matter how powerful I am, I still don't have an antidote. And I still don't know where this 'drug' comes from." Lin Caisang said bluntly.

"How could this happen?"

Several people couldn't believe that such a thing could happen. Even Lin Caisang said with certainty that there really was no antidote for "Yinying".

"Palace Master..."

"You all get out."

Ya Molian didn't say anything, just let them go out.

Ban Jue looked at Lin Caisang and then at his own palace master, and had no choice but to grit his teeth and walk out, followed by Ban Wu.

"Master of the Palace, I will go down and prepare some medicine for you." Jiang Zuo said and pulled Jiang Li out.

The hall suddenly became quiet, and after a long while, Lin Caisang gritted his teeth, as if he had made up his mind, and turned to look at Ya Molian.

"Brother Mo Lian, don't worry. Just because you can't cure the poison now doesn't mean you won't be able to cure it in the future. Maybe I..."

"It's my mother!"

"ah?"

Lin Caisang was interrupted by his faint words, but was stunned for a moment and did not understand what he said.

But after a while, she understood what Ya Molian meant, her eyes widened immediately, and her face became even more angry.

"What did you say? It was your mother who poisoned you. She..."

Is there something wrong with your brain? !

She only dared to curse these words in her heart. After all, she was Ya Molian's mother. No matter how she was not her, she was not someone an outsider could discuss.

However, she couldn't help but feel sorry for Ya Molian. Even her own mother drugged her, and she was abandoned by others and lived a wandering life.

How difficult is it to live such a life?

"At that time, I only ate the snacks she sent." Ya Molian pursed her lips and said.

No matter how he was despised or abandoned by his family in the past, he believed in his heart that his mother must have had no choice but to abandon him. Everyone hopes in his heart to have a relative who can care and love him. ,He is also included.

So two years ago, when his mother sent a message asking him to go back because she wanted to see her son, he went back without hesitation.

No one can imagine that this is just an excuse to use him again.

"Brother Mo Lian, believe me, I will be able to detoxify you, just give me time." Lin Caisang held his hand tightly and said solemnly.
