Chapter 376 Adding food to lunch

They just watched Lin Caisang bring a bowl of chicken soup to their palace master, and watched the palace master drink it deliciously. Then Lin Caisang said that there was still some in the kitchen and asked them to come over and drink some.

I was quite embarrassed at first, thinking that this was the chicken soup that Lin Caisang cooked for their palace master. How could he give it to them?

But I couldn't resist the temptation of delicious food, so I went to the kitchen to drink.

result.....

So how can you not share it with your brothers when it tastes so 'good' that you'll never get chicken soup for a lifetime?

It's a pity that Ban Jue was on guard for a long time and didn't drink. It was a mistake on their part.

"But why is chicken soup sweet?!"

It was the first time he drank sweet chicken soup, and Fei Wu felt that this was so unreasonable.

"Exiled Jue, why didn't you drink it? Didn't you know a long time ago that Miss Lin doesn't know how to cook at all!" He looked at Exiled Jue who had no intention of drinking soup, glared, and lowered his voice to the last few words. the voice asked.

"cough."

When Ban Jue heard his question, he coughed lightly.

"Miss Lin burned down the kitchen once because of cooking at home, and was banned from entering the kitchen to cook. As for the palace master... it was the palace master who always prepared all kinds of meals and brought them to Miss Lin."

Ban Wu: "..."

It was exactly what he thought!

Jiang Zuo: "..."

What did he hear? The master of his palace actually cooked for a little girl named Lin Caisang!

Jiang Li: "..."

No wonder she became so weird when she heard that Lin Caisang wanted to cook. It turned out to be because she knew she couldn't cook. She had known this before, but she didn't mention a word to them.

"Then what are we going to eat tomorrow?"

Suddenly, the three of them thought of an extremely serious problem at the same time.

Lin Caisang said that he would cook for his palace master tomorrow, but his palace master didn't seem to stop him. Do they want to eat like this tomorrow? Sweet chicken? !

Isn't this a scam?

Early the next morning, Ya Mo Lian and four others had arrived on Menghuang Mountain.

By coincidence, Lin Changfeng was not in Menghuang Mountain because he was called by Lin Baiyi to go to town to buy some clothes for Lin Caihe.

For this reason, Lin Caisang also gave Lin Changfeng ten taels of silver and told him to take a good look around the town and buy more for Lin Caihe. If he liked something, he could also buy some for himself.

Lin Changfeng couldn't refuse, so he had to accept it, but he didn't think of using Lin Caimulberry's money.

Lin Changhong, who liked to follow Ya Molian the most, went to the village school to learn literacy with Lin Changyi and Lin Caiqing because of Lin Caisang's decision. He would not appear on Menghuang Mountain during the day.

"Palace Master, my subordinates have cooked porridge, please drink some first."

Ban Jue placed the rice porridge in front of his palace master and brought some delicious side dishes.

"Where are the people?"

Ya Molian raised her eyes and asked him.

He didn't see the little girl when he woke up early in the morning. He thought she would be on Menghuang Mountain, but he didn't see her when she came.

"this....."

Relegated to Yamo Lian, the hand that handed him the chopsticks paused.

"Miss Lin said she was going to the mountains to pick some vegetables for lunch, but she didn't let her subordinates follow her."

By the way, Miss Lin went into the mountains before dawn, and she had a tea basket she had just knitted hanging on her waist. She was also carrying a large basket in her hand, and she was carrying a large bamboo basket on her back. I don't know what she is going to do or how many things she is going to collect in the mountain.
