Chapter 382 Move here?

"I'll take these to grandpa and grandma, and third aunt. She's pregnant with a baby now, so it's best to eat these.

Our place is not good. The good cherry loquats have been soaked in rain and are not very sweet anymore. But I added white sugar and the sweetness is enough. In the past few days, I will go to the mountains to pick some cherries and loquats to make dried fruit, and then make some raspberry wine. It is raining every day, and everyone at home is almost moldy. "

Listening to her thoughts while doing things, Ya Molian suddenly felt funny in her heart.

"How can I keep you bored when I'm outside every day?" he asked softly.

"I have something to do, okay? I'm not just wandering around." Lin Caisang gave him an annoyed look.

It's easy for her to take on a task. She has to "cheat" under the eyes of her grandpa and grandma to get out. She is as busy as a spinning top every day, and she also has to take care of family affairs.

"I don't know if Brother Changfeng and the others are back. It's raining..."

Hearing Lin Caisang mention Lin Changfeng, Ya Molian frowned immediately. Thinking of Lin Caisang, who had vicious thoughts and did not distinguish between good and bad, her face immediately darkened.

"What do you care about them?"

"We live under the same roof, so we can leave it alone." Lin Caisang said.

She wanted to leave it alone, but if she didn't look at the monk's face or the Buddha's face, she had to take care of it. Maybe, after the marriage was settled, Lin Caihe would be more content, who knows.

"Xiao Sangzi, the environment here is quite good. Everything you need to prepare is ready."

Suddenly, Ya Molian's topic changed and she talked about the house on Menghuang Mountain. He had personally prepared all the things in it, and he knew all about them.

"yes."

Lin Caisang nodded and thought so.

But she still looked at Yamolian with doubts. She was talking about Lin Caihe so well. Why did she suddenly jump to the house in Menghuang Mountain?

Just when she was confused, she heard Ya Molian's deep voice ringing in her ears.

"When did you move here?"

Lin Caisang: "..."

She knew that everything Ya Molian said had a purpose and was not for no reason. Sure enough...

"Brother Mo Lian, if I suddenly proposed moving to the mountains, what would grandma and grandma think? Is this really good?"

Even if it is good, can Grandpa and Grandma allow her to move to the mountains? You must know that Zhong You lives on Menghuang Mountain. Although Lin Changfeng is also on the mountain, there are still differences between men and women.

"Let Changhong also move to the mountain, and besides..." Thinking of Zhong You, Ya Molian narrowed her black eyes.

"Since Zhong You has settled here, it's not okay to follow you like this. It's better to let him officially become your disciple. In this way, it won't be easy for others to say anything if word spreads."

"Worship me as your teacher?"

Lin Caisang's head was full of black lines.

"You have to have a skill to become a disciple. Look at me. What skills can Zhong You learn? My 'self-taught' medical skills? Even people in this village don't know."

Besides, she didn't want the people in the village to know about her medical skills, otherwise how would she explain it?

For the people in Yacun, knowing that she would go to the mountains to collect medicinal materials and earn a little money was already quite good, but she still didn't want others to know.

"If I'm not wrong, you should be able to get ten thousand taels of gold if you reveal the royal list and treat the eldest princess, right?" Suddenly, Ya Molian asked her.
