Chapter 384 The family needs to be separated

"Is there any secret about me that you haven't guessed?"

She asked Ya Molian angrily.

"Ah."

Ya Molian chuckled and raised her hand to gently rub her head.

"So what I mean is that you can just use the excuse of making dried fruits to move directly to the mountains. During the day, your grandma and the others will definitely come to the mountains to help you. At night, Lin Changhong comes back from school and lives here. It can also shut everyone up.

Next, you can ask Zhong You to worship you as his teacher on the pretext of learning how to make dried fruits. "

Lin Caisang: "..."

He has everything planned out.

Indeed, this idea is the best, otherwise Zhong You is still an independent person, and if he has anything to do with her, he will inevitably be blamed, and she has to guard against this and that.

"It still doesn't work."

Lin Caisang shook his head and thought of another level.

"Brother Changfeng is about to go to the county to attend the Autumn Festival. If I open a shop at this time, wouldn't this be holding him back?"

Liang Guo was still very strict with scholars. If you wanted to participate in the Autumn Wei, and then the Spring Wei, you had to go through layers of screening. If the family businessmen were not outstanding enough in their knowledge, they would be dismissed directly.

"So, this is another thing I want to say, you and Changhong are going to separate." Ya Molian said.

"Separate the family? This is impossible!"

Lin Caisang shook her head. When she heard the word separation, she knew it was impossible without even thinking about it. How could Grandma let her and her eldest brother separate? If she dared to mention the family separation, Grandma would dare to cry to her, but she didn't want to take the risk. (audience)

"Aren't you posing a problem for me?"

"Don't you think this is the best way?" Seeing what she said, Ya Molian asked her again.

"Lin Changfeng attends the Autumn Palace, do you think it's that simple? If the family doesn't have any money, even if he gets the title of Juren, when he goes to the Spring Palace next year, when he arrives in Jian'an City, even if no one dares to bribe the examiner, some What about socializing?

Make a few friends to have a meal together, stay in an inn, or make friends with some dignitary, and give him a small gift or something. Which of these things doesn't come with money? Xiao Sangzi, these are not small sums.

Are you going to give Lin Changfeng the money you... earned from doing tasks? "

He raised his eyebrows and asked her.

Lin Caisang was silent. Indeed, it was not that simple to gain a foothold in Jian'an City, let alone to stand out among so many candidates.

"Then... let me think about it."

"good."

The corner of Yamolian's lips curled up slightly and she responded softly.

"Think about it first. If you need a shop, I will prepare it for you."

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded thoughtfully.

Perhaps, the method Ya Molian said is the best method now, right?

...

Lin Caisang has always been a person who wants to do whatever he thinks of as soon as possible. Once he has thought about opening a shop, he doesn't want to wait for a moment, but how should he tell his family about this?

This requires some thought.

Go and talk to grandpa first? No, if grandpa goes to tell grandma at that time, if the two of them are not connected properly, won't it cause chaos in the house?

Lin Caihe's incident has already made everyone in the family feel bad. If something happens to her again...

Therefore, she still had to go and talk to Grandma about this matter first, explain all the stakes to Grandma clearly, and then let Grandma take her to talk to Grandpa.
