

Star of Space 389

Chapter 389 I don't have any other opinions

"Changyi, Qing'er, go wipe the rain off your body and don't catch a cold.

Lin Caisang nodded and explained to the two of them. When they saw them nodding and leaving, she looked at her eldest brother, waved to him, and pulled him aside to her room.

"Brother, come here, I have something to tell you."

"What's going on?"

Lin Changhong was confused.

"Sang Sang, if you drag me in like this, you are not afraid of Grandma and the others' random thoughts."

Grandma will think that the brother and sister have some secret, and she will not kiss them anymore.

"No, grandpa and grandma know."

"Know? What do you know?" Lin Changhong was even more confused.

What does this girl want to say, or has she discussed something with Grandpa and Grandma, and just brought him here to inform him?

"I just told Grandma and decided to separate from Third Uncle and the others," Lin Caisang said.

"What is it?"

After listening to his sister's words, Lin Changhong felt like there were question marks on his forehead.

"Been separated? Sangsang, I hear you say that you want to separate the family. Can grandma agree?"
Even if grandma agrees, grandpa will not agree!

The people in their village who are arguing about family separation are all those who have troublemakers in their families and have to separate their families. Otherwise, how could they have separated if there were elders in the family?

"Grandma agreed." Lin Caisang said.

"That....."

"Grandpa also agreed."

Before Lin Changhong could say anything, Lin Caisang said again.

Lin Changhong: "..."

Why does it feel like he has been away from home for a few years after going to school for a few days?
Why can't he understand this home anymore?

"Sang Sang, do you want to separate the family because grandma released Lin Caihe?" he asked.

Just now he saw Lin Caihe who was in the room, sticking her head out and peeking out. He was still wondering why she was let out. What if she acted crazy again and hurt someone?

"Don't worry, I'll go tell grandpa right now..."

"Brother!"

Lin Caisang was about to rush out when he saw him, so he quickly pulled him back.

"Listen to me first."

"What do you say."

Lin Changhong could only stand still and look at her and said.

"I'm going to do some business. You should understand that if Brother Changfeng and I are a family, my business will definitely affect Brother Changfeng's career, so we must separate our families."

Lin Caisang looked at Lin Changhong steadily and said.

"You have also seen that I have grown so many things in Manghuang Mountain. It is impossible for just a few people in the family to eat them. I have to sell them when the time comes. It is imperative to do business, not to mention Brother Changfeng is about to leave. If you participate in Qiuwei and win the election, there will be plenty of money to spend next year.

Where do you get all this money? Are you relying on your third uncle to sell some furniture? "

"Well."

Lin Changhong was choked by his sister's words.

Relying on my third uncle to sell furniture, it will take until the Year of the Monkey to raise the money for Brother Changfeng to take the exam. If we wait until then, the day lilies will be cold.

So, this family must be divided, right?

"Then if the family is separated, will grandpa and grandma stay with our family?" he asked.

"You have to ask grandpa and grandma what they want. I can't decide. However, Chu Shui will definitely follow us. I saved him, and this life is mine." Lin Caisang said.

The key thing is, according to what Ya Molian told her, Lin Chushui is not Liu Baixiao's son. She thinks this matter is too strange, and she must find out no matter how long it takes.

"As long as grandpa and grandma stay with our family, I don't have any objections to the rest."
