

Star of Space 391

Chapter 391 No one treats you as a mute!

Hearing his words, Lin Baiyi and Lin Changfeng felt a thump in their hearts at the same time, feeling an ominous premonition.

"Dad, what do you mean?"

Lin Baiyi's face turned ugly and he asked with a stiff face.

"What dad means is that this family should be separated." Lin Laogeng said.

"What, you want... to separate the family?"

When Lin Caihe heard the word "family separation", his face suddenly turned pale and his whole body felt bad.

Although in this family, she wanted to compete with Lin Caisang in everything, but at the same time, she knew better that without Lin Caisang, her life would definitely not be as good as it is now.

If they really split up, how could their family have any money to spend? Not even her eldest brother could afford it.

"Grandpa, we can't divide this family." She immediately shouted to Lin Laogong.

After hearing her words, Lin Laogong glanced at her.

"He girl, in this family, the one who has the least right to say such things is you!"

"I....."

Lin Caihe choked immediately.

Seeing the one who knew what was going on, Lin Laogong didn't dare to speak, and continued to look at Lin Baiyi and Lin Changfeng.

"That's what I thought. Changfeng is going to the county soon to participate in the Autumn Festival. There will naturally be more places to use money. It just so happens that there are a lot of things grown on the barren hills of Sangsangmeng. I want to open a shop to get them. Sell those things.

Once the two sides come together, they naturally cannot get along, so this family should be separated. Of course, if you don't want to separate, you can just list the names of the two families with the clan leader.

What do you think? "

"Dad, I..."

Lin Baiyi wanted to object, but his son next to him grabbed his wrist.

"Changfeng, what do you mean?"

"Grandpa, you and Grandma want to follow Sang Sang and Changhong, don't you?" Lin Changfeng stopped his father with his eyes, looked at Lin Laogan and asked.

Lin Laogan's eyes became a little deeper again, he nodded and spoke.

"Actually, we are the same as everyone else. We are all one family. It's just that Sangsang's opening a shop here will always have an impact on you. It's okay if you have already participated in the scientific examination, but the key point is that you haven't participated yet.

Changfeng, Sang Sang is right. If you want to go to Jian'an City, there will be many places to spend money. You also know what our family is like. How can we get that much money? Sang Sang wants to open a shop. , Grandpa supports her, and you must support her too. "

After listening to his grandfather's words, Lin Changfeng took a deep breath, picked up the bamboo cup in front of him, drank all the tea in one breath, and then looked at Lin Caisang who had never spoken.

"Sangsang, do you want to open a shop?"

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded.

"What do you want to sell?" Lin Changfeng asked again.

"Brother Changfeng, what can Sangsang sell, other than medicine..."

"Lin Changhong, if you don't speak, no one will treat you as a mute!"

Before Lin Changhong finished speaking, Lin Caisang was so angry that he almost smashed the bamboo cup in his hand.

In the eyes of her elder brother, Lin Caisang can't do anything except medicinal materials, right? Is this guy her biological brother? Besides cheating on her, will he do anything else?

"This is the dried fruit I made. Third uncle, third aunt, Brother Changfeng, you guys should try it too."

She stood up, took the dried cherries and loquats that had been prepared from the side, and put them on the table.

"You did it?"

Lin Baiyi raised his eyebrows involuntarily.

Even Yang Lin, who had been silent, looked at her in surprise, not to mention the expressions on the faces of Lin Changyi and Lin Caiqing, which were called rich.
