Chapter 392 The elder brother who specializes in cheating her

"Made by Sangsang? Let me try it.

Lin Changhong was indeed her elder brother. Although he would cheat her sister from time to time, at critical moments, he would always be the first one to stand up and support his sister.

"Well, this is delicious. Sangsang, did you really make this? I can't believe that the dried fruits made by Sangsang didn't poison me to death. God bless me."

After eating a dried cherry, his eyes lit up, and he took another piece of dried loquat and put it into his mouth, and then the questioning voice rang out.

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

As expected, it was her elder brother who was specifically trying to trick her.

"I just put poison in it, bring it to me, if you don't want to eat it, don't eat it.

As she said this, she made a gesture to take the things back.

"Eat, eat, eat, I'll eat."

Lin Changhong quickly snatched the two bamboo jars back, put them on the table, and spoke to Lin Baiyi and Yang Lin.

"Third uncle and third aunt, you guys should eat too. It's rare to get to eat the things we Sang Sang made. If you don't eat, you'll get nothing."

Lin Caisang: "..."

Why didn't he become mute with so many words?

Lin Baiyi and Yang Lin smiled uncomfortably. They were naturally happy that Lin Caishi could make dried fruits, but they couldn't be happy at the thought of separating their families.

"Dad, do we really want to separate our families?"

Lin Baiyi felt reluctant. Although they still lived together after separation, the feeling in his heart... was always different.

"This is also for Changfeng." Lin Laogong looked at his son and said seriously.

Now the most profitable person in the family is Sangsang. Since she expressed the idea of opening a shop, she must have considered it and not just said it casually.

As the head of a family, he can only sit in a wheelchair and can't do anything, and he feels extremely guilty.

Since the children had this idea to make money, why didn't he support it?

"Changfeng, can you understand Sang Sang's painstaking efforts?"

"I see."

Lin Changfeng nodded.

He also knew that when he was in the academy, many families would cut off the family's most profitable pillar from the family tree in order to provide for one of their descendants to study and gain fame, so that the family could live a better life.

He originally just listened to these, but he didn't expect that it would happen to him today.

He just hated himself. Although he was not the kind of scholar who couldn't lift his hands or shoulders, there was really little he could do for his family.

"I listen to grandpa, you can divide it how you say."

"good."

Seeing him nodding, Lin Laogong felt relieved.

"In this way, even though we just list the names in the family tree, there must be an explanation to the clan leader, and everyone in the village must know that our Lin family has been divided."

He thought over and over before and finally came up with a result.

"Sang Sang and Chang Hong are not very old. Although our families are separated, there is always an adult in the family of the two brothers Sang Sang. Your grandma and I live with Sang Sang and Chang Hong, and Chu Shui, he just came here not long ago, and he was originally in your uncle's name, so he was assigned to Sangsang's side."

"Grandpa, if you say that, why don't we just say that we can be kicked out as a family?" Lin Caihe listened to what grandpa said and thought that after all, they were one family with three rooms, and the others could make do with it.

"What about the house? We have so many houses, how should we divide them?"

she asked.
