

Star of Space 400

Chapter 400 Stop messing around with me

"I remember that Yagumanchu often followed you into the mountains to pick bird's nests in the past few years. Although he didn't talk much, he was also an expert at picking bird's nests, right? His parents are really picky, and they can't even get this little food. They don't want to waste it on their biological son.

But it's no wonder, everyone likes sweet-tongued children, but Yagu Man is a stupid person.

To say he was stupid was an understatement, but to say he was not pleasant to the ears, if she hadn't been a fellow villager with him for so many years, she would have doubted whether Yaguman could speak anymore, and could only immerse himself in work all day long.

"Brother Mo Lian, it's not that I don't want to say good things about Lin Caihe. A temperament like hers is really not worthy of the honest Bajiao Yaguman."

"Ah."

Ya Molian chuckled.

The little girl thinks that Lin Caihe is not worthy of Yaguman. Maybe Lin Caihe also thinks that Yaguman is not worthy of her. It is not certain whether this will happen, but naturally he will not say this to the little girl in front of him. The girl said it.

"Don't worry about others. Are you going to the mountains to pick cherries and loquats tomorrow?" he asked.

"I want to go."

Lin Caisang nodded.

Now that something has been decided, it naturally needs to be done as quickly as possible.

"Zhong You has lived in Menghuang Mountain for a long time. Let him go with me tomorrow. Although he is studying medicine with me, he has to help me with all the other things he needs to do. With.

As for you - rest well at home and wait until I tell you that you can go up the mountain before you can follow me.

Yamolian: "..."

He originally came here to ask, thinking of accompanying her into the mountains tomorrow.

The result was good, she knocked him down with a stick.

"I'm in good health."

"It doesn't matter what you say."

Lin Caisang rejected his words with a rare seriousness on his face.

"The day I say you are well, you will be truly well."

"Sonny..."

Ya Molian had no choice but to look at her with resentful eyes.

On her side, was he ever in good health? Unless the poison in him is detoxified.

"Okay, okay, stop hanging around here. Do you still want to live here? Go back quickly." Lin Caisang ignored him and shouted to chase them away.

...

On the small road in Yacun, Lu Qiubo and Lin Baiyi had just come out of Yaguihua's house.

"Mom, what do you think Gu Man's parents think? How can they let Gu Man live in that old house alone...ah, it can still be a house. It's just a piece of land. Can people live in it?"

Lin Baiyi said angrily.

He also heard Ya Guihua mention that after Yaguman married his family, he would move out from home and live alone. From now on, all the money Yaguman earned would belong to him alone.

Yaguman himself earned all the betrothal gifts and gave them to them.

Isn't this lying with his eyes open? When he doesn't know that Yagu Man's left hand is no different from being broken. How much money can a person who is missing a hand earn?

"Why, do you still think Gu Man is not worthy of your daughter?"

In the darkness, Lu Qiubo didn't bother to glare at his son, since he couldn't see him anyway.

He felt that the cliffs and valleys were full. Although the scars on his face were a bit ugly, he was still hard-working. Even if he only had one hand, he could no longer go to the mountains to collect bird's nests, but he could raise a pig at home and grow some grain and vegetables. No matter what, life can still be prosperous.

Unlike their granddaughter, who doesn't do anything serious all day long, but is full of crooked ideas.
