Chapter 401 If you don't want to talk about marriage, get out!

"I don't think that's what you meant. You just pity the child Guman." Lin Baiyi said.

"Okay, don't talk about it there. Anyway, it's not easy for your daughter to be able to talk about marriage. If you mess with her again, she will probably have to be an old girl at home."

Lu Qiubo said as he walked home with the wind at his feet.

"Didn't you come back with the cloth? Tomorrow, A-Lin and I will take out the girl's clothes and kiss her. We must wear something nice, so as not to be laughed at by others."

"Why."

Lin Baiyi responded.

In the next two days, Lin Caisang and Zhong You were picking cherries and loquats in the forest. After picking up a bamboo basket, Zhong You was asked to carry it back to Menghuang Mountain. Of course, Ban Jue had nothing to do with his time. The four of them were also assigned by Yamolian to pick wild fruits on the mountain.

So now, Lin picks mulberries in the forest in the morning, processes them on Menghuang Mountain in the afternoon, and then does something of his own while the fruits are drying.

There were not that many bamboo jars, so she put all the dried fruits in jars and sealed them.

They were busy like this for two days. On the third day, Lin Changyi came to her in a hurry and said it was someone from the family. Grandma asked everyone to go home, and Lin Caisang knew that it was the Ya family who came to propose marriage.

But even though it was a marriage proposal, it was only a verbal agreement, and Yaguman's parents were unwilling to come up with a betrothal gift for Yaguman.

Yaguman has to earn these by himself.

"Aunt Qiubo, my Gu Man is a rare honest person, and he also knows how to make money."

When Lin Caisang and Lin Changyi walked outside the house, they saw a woman holding their grandma's arm and talking nonstop. That person was Yaguman's biological mother.

She is quite old, but she is dressed like a little girl, wearing a pink dress.

"I'm not telling you that. If my family Gu Man hadn't hurt his face a few years ago, and there were so many girls who wanted to marry him, it would never have been your family's turn to pick lotuses. However, this is because they are destined. Gu This kid Man took a liking to your Caihe at first sight..."

Yaguman's mother could be heard chattering, but Yaguman beside her didn't even look at Lin Caihe, who was standing next to Lu Qiubo with hazy eyes.

"Let's talk about my family. I also know that this daughter-in-law will have many bumps and bruises in the future after she gets married. No, we parents are generous and let Gu Man move out to live alone. You can rest assured in the future. People can bully Caihe."

Lin Caisang: "..."

This was really the most slippery thing she had ever seen. He had clearly kicked his son out of the house, but he could still say how generous he was.

She really saw it.

"Grandma, I'm back."

"Sangsang..."

"Hey, Sangsang is back."

Before Lu Qiubo could speak to his granddaughter, he heard Yaguman's mother suddenly turn the conversation to Lin Caisang.

"Aunt Qiubo, let me tell you, your family Sang Sang is actually my favorite. She is such a capable person and has such a big family business. If she can marry into our family, although Gu Man is not worthy of Sang Sang, Sang, but my family still has a full warehouse and a full supply of grain, Sang Sang..."

"If you don't want to talk about marriage, get out!"

Lin Caisang's eyes dimmed and he shouted angrily at her.

As for her two sons with sharp mouths and monkey cheeks, apart from eating, they only know how to exploit Yaguman. Whoever takes a fancy to them would be unlucky and even want to target her.

Do you really think she is easy to talk to?
