Chapter 403 Your wings are hard

Lin Caisang interrupted her, and after saying the last sentence, his face suddenly turned cold, and he passed her directly into the courtyard.

"Oh, right."

Suddenly, as if she thought of something again, she turned around and looked at the people at the entrance of the courtyard.

"Grandma, if you really want to make this marriage, let them write it down in black and white. After the two families are separated, Yaguman will have to give his parents a few taels of silver every year. The rest should not be filial piety to the elders. , I can't give you even a single copper, otherwise the marriage will be ruined.

Of course, if Yaguman gives his parents too much money, you will feel uncomfortable. We don't want to miss his family's marriage. We can just trouble Granny Guihua to find another family. He'er is only thirteen years old, so we can wait. rise.

After saying that, she turned around and really went back to her room.

Everyone in the courtyard: "..."

After hearing her words, Yaguman's mother gritted her teeth and regretted so much. Why did she offend Lin Caisang by talking so much just now?

As for Lu Qiubo, he finally realized that Sangsang was right, write it down in black and white, and follow what was written down in the future. If this family is really not a good match for He'er, then don't marry!

"Gu Manniang, what my Sangsang said is right. Since you proposed to let Gu Manfen go out and live alone for the sake of the two children, you have to explain the matter clearly. Don't look back and be confused. There is something in Gu Man's house. , were all taken away by your other sons. If this were to happen, our Lin family would not agree.

Lu Qiubo's eyes fell from Yaguman's mother to Yaguman.

"Gu Man, do you think I'm right?"

"I...I listen to Grandma Qiubo."

Finally, Yagu Man, who had never spoken a word, raised his head and spoke the first sentence of the day.

"Guman, you..."

Yaguman's mother was furious after hearing her son's words.

"Mom, didn't you ask me to separate?" Yagu Man looked at his mother.

If he doesn't speak at this time, everyone will really treat him as a fool. Although he talks less, he is not really a fool.

His parents saw that he was of no use and wanted to kick him away. He could see it very clearly.

But after all, they are his parents. As long as they want to do something, he will follow them. However, the money he has earned for the family over the years is enough to repay his parents for their upbringing, not to mention hurting his face and his hands. They were all injured.

He didn't even know what he would do to earn money to support his family in the future.

If he really married a wife and let his mother take away everything in the house, as Lin Caisang said, would he still be unable to survive?

After marrying a wife, he really has his own family. He has to think about his wife and children, right?

"There is nothing in that yard. If I live there, there will be nothing. And I don't even know how I will make money in the future. I won't be able to come up with anything good to honor you and dad."

"You, you...you unfilial thing, what the hell, your wings are stiff, do you still want to disregard your parents' life and death?" Yagu Man's mother asked him sternly, her face flushed with anger.

"Mom, my wings are stiff somewhere, didn't you see? I can't even lift my hand." Yaguman looked helplessly at his left hand and said to his mother.

If his left hand was still fine, would his mother still think about getting him engaged and letting him live in the old house?
