Chapter 404: A thief is invited in

"You...you unfilial thing, I have known for a long time that you are unreliable. Unlike your eldest and second brothers, who will help your parents with work, you..."

After just saying a few words, Yaguman's mother actually started crying in front of everyone, and complained about Yaguman while crying.

"Mom, I didn't say I don't care about you and dad." Yagu's face was full of helplessness.

What can he do with such a girl? The eldest brother and the second brother in the family are talkative, and he is the only one who doesn't like to talk. His parents treat him as a handyman, but we are all a family, and he doesn't care who does more and who does more.

But if the families are separated in the future, as Grandma Qiubo said, the separation must be clear.

He couldn't say much about his parents, but now that Grandma Qiubo and the others had brought it up, he naturally agreed.

"It's just that my hands are disabled now. I'm not as good at picking bird's nests as I used to be. I definitely don't earn much money, and I don't have much left to honor you and dad every year."

"Why do you have no money? If you marry Lin Caihe, not all the Lin family's money will belong to you. Lin Caisang still has such a huge barren mountain. If you can take it..."

"Gu Manniang, what did you say?"

When Lu Qiubo heard her words, he immediately roared.

Good guy, the marriage hasn't been finalized yet, but he already wants to plot against her family's Sang Sang family fortune.

"Well."

Yagu Man's mother accidentally let the matter slip, and her face suddenly became embarrassed.

"Aunt Qiubo, I'm... just joking, I can't take it seriously." He was quickly saved again.

"Sister-in-law Osmanthus, what kind of marriage are you talking about to my He girl? If this marriage is really settled, wouldn't our Lin family have invited a thief into the house?"

Lu Qiubo looked at Ya Osmanthus with scarlet eyes and asked.

She will never look down upon anyone who dares to take advantage of her Sangsang family.

"This...I don't know either."

Ya Guihua looked embarrassed and explained weakly.

She really didn't know where Yaguman's mother had the courage to put her idea on Lin Caisang's head. It was easy to say anything else, but Lin Caisang, let alone Yaguman's mother. , even she didn't dare to make up her mind.

This is too thick-skinned!

"Mother Guman, if you don't want to decide on this marriage, let's go back." She immediately lowered her face and glared at Yaguman's mother.

"No, Aunt Guihua, didn't we agree?" Yaguman's mother heard this and quickly laughed with her.

"I was just quick to talk and couldn't take it seriously. Let's settle the marriage first and talk about the rest later."

"What else can you say?"

Lu Qiubo glared and looked directly at her.

"If you really want to marry your son, you should clarify the matter of the separation of the family and write it down in black and white. Also, we can compare how much money the son of the separation family in Yacun pays to his parents every year. If it's too much, let's not talk about this marriage."

With that said, she directly pulled Lin Changyi and others into the courtyard and closed the courtyard door.

"this....."

Ya Guihua's face turned ugly and she looked directly at Yagu Man's mother.

"Gu Manniang, look at what you did."

"Aunt Osmanthus Osmanthus, what do you think we should do about this matter? This wonderful marriage cannot just be forgotten." Yagu Man's mother was also on the verge of tears, wishing she could not take pictures of the Lin family's courtyard gate again.

But she also knew that Lu Qiubo would not open the door.

"Okay, don't talk to me here." Ya Guihua waved her hand.
