

Star of Space 405

Chapter 405 How are you living this day?

"Hurry up and go to the clan leader and settle the matter of family separation. Let me tell you, your Aunt Qiubo is not easy to fool. If you open your mouth to the lion Guman, the marriage will not be finalized by then, and you will have to be killed. If your son is forced to die, just wait to be drowned by the spitting stars in the village.

With that said, she left quietly.

This was truly the most shameless marriage she had ever had, and it was all for the sake of Sangsang and the twenty eggs. Otherwise, whoever wanted to talk about the kiss would be the one to talk about it!

"I....."

Yagu Man's mother opened her mouth and watched Ya Guihua leave holding an oil umbrella. She really regretted it. If she had known what she said to Lin Caisang, she would have just settled the marriage.

"If you leave, why are you still there? This wife is not yours now. 6"

There was nowhere to vent his anger, so he could only look at his son and yell at him.

"oh."

Yaguman responded, looked back at the Lin family's courtyard gate again, and then followed his mother away.

...

In the Lin family, although Lu Qiubo closed the door aggressively, he still felt a little guilty.

She also knew that it was really hard to find someone as honest and conscientious as Ya Guman. If she missed this, it would be impossible for Lin Caihe to find a good husband.

"Sangsang, if you say this... there won't be anything wrong, right?"

Entering the main room, she asked her granddaughter, who had just come out of the room with a few pieces of paper in her hand.

"What could be wrong?" Lin Caisang chuckled.

The key now is not about this marriage, but that Ya Guman's hand is disabled. The Ya family doesn't want to raise a waste and wants to kick him out.

As long as Mr. and Mrs. Ya still have this idea, this marriage will not go away.

"Grandma, if you don't restrain Yaguman's mother now, she will think that everyone in our family is easy to bully, and our family will never have peace in the future."

she reminded.

"Too."

Lu Qiubo felt that Lin Caisang was right.

Just like the posture just now, the woman who looked back really dared to think about Sangsang's wild mountain.

"Grandma, I don't like Yaguman. With his face, how can I live my life if I'm with him?" Lin Caihe secretly wiped his tears and said to Lu Qiubo in a low voice.

She had never paid attention to Yaguman before, because such a country man was not good-looking, so she simply could not like him.

But now, she actually wanted to get engaged to him, how could she agree? Especially when I saw Ya Guman's face, the scars on it were so scary, as if there were centipedes coiled around the face.

If she really slept in the same bed with such a man, she would be scared to death at night.

"You don't like Gu Man?"

After hearing her words, Lu Qiubo looked at her funny.

"Yes, grandma."

Lin Caihe nodded quickly, reached out and grabbed Lu Qiubo's arm tightly.

"That Yagu Man is so scary, and his hands are disabled. If I marry such a person, how can I live my life? Grandma, please don't agree to this marriage, I beg you."

She swallowed and couldn't help but shudder when she thought of Yaguman's face.

"It's no use begging me."

Lu Qiubo shook off her hand, his expression cold.

"Based on your reputation outside, it's already good to have someone willing to marry you. How dare you pick and choose here, the fat and the thin? Do you really think you are a fairy who can marry the emperor?"
