Chapter 414 The Difficulties Are Great

"Wait a minute, are cherry wine and cherry fruit wine different?" Ya Molian interrupted her.

In fact, when she mentioned rose cherry jam and cherry jam just now, he wanted to ask, but thinking that the two names were different after all, he didn't ask, but...

"Of course it's different."

Lin Caisang stopped his finger movements and looked at him to explain.

"Kirsch wine is made from cherries, white wine and rock sugar, while cherry wine is made from fermented cherries and koji. There is a big difference between the two. How can they be the same?"

I won't tell you these. How many types did I just talk about? By the way, there are eleven kinds, and loquat can also be used to make wine. When brewed with rice wine, it also has health-preserving effects. Not to mention there are other wild fruits on the mountain, wild strawberries, red and black raspberries, etc. And you see, the peaches, apricots, and plums on the mountain will be picked soon. Not only can they be made into wine, but they can also be made into peach water and dried peaches. ..."

"stop!"

Ya Molian quickly stopped her words.

If she continued talking, why did he think the two of them could talk until the evening?

"oh."

Lin Caisang closed his mouth, feeling that he had said too much.

But she couldn't help but be excited when she thought that there were so many things on the mountain that she could use to make a lot of money.

"So, Sonny, do you want to go up the mountain to pick wild fruits by yourself every day?" Ya Molian asked her.

"Well."

Lin Caisang choked at his words.

In fact, she was also worried about this matter. She was alone, with only one pair of hands and one pair of feet. She had picked so many fruits on the mountain, but she was still exhausted.

But what can be done?

"Then what do you want to do?"

"You can sit on Menghuang Mountain and wait for the wild fruits to be delivered to you." Ya Molian reminded her.

"Um?"

Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows and didn't react for a moment. When he realized the meaning of his words, his eyes didn't change much, and he pursed his lips and spoke to him.

"You mean, let me collect wild fruits from people in the village?"

"Having trouble?"

He asked when he saw that she was not as happy as he imagined.

"The difficulty is great."

Lin Caisang looked at him with her red lips pouted.

"There are a lot of wild fruits in the mountains, as you know. If I go to the village and ask how many fruits are harvested from the mountains per kilogram, then everyone will go to the mountains to pick them. There is so much fruit in one day that I can't do anything even if I have ten pairs of hands. Turn them into dried fruits."

"That's not a problem. If you feel that you don't want others to know about making dried fruits, you can go to the dental shop and buy a few women to do the work. Or if you trust me, I will find someone for you."

Ya Molian said.

"Of course I can trust you, but I can't trust the people in the village." Lin Caisang said with a bitter smile.

"what for?"

Ya Molian did not understand what Lin Caisang meant.

What does it mean to not trust the people in the village? What does this have to do with the people in the village? They are only responsible for sending her wild fruits.

"Brother Mo Lian, let me give you an analogy."

Lin Caisang pointed at himself, then at him, and then began to make gestures with his hands.

"For example, if you want to harvest fruits now, and my family is short of money, I will go to the mountains to pick fruits and sell them to you. But I am not the only one in the village who is short of money. Everyone is picking wild fruits in the mountains, but Wailing It's so big, what do you do when you finish picking wild fruits? What do you think a person who is willing to do anything for his livelihood will do?"

"Go to Neilin to pick!"

Thinking of this, Ya Molian also frowned.
