

Star of Space 415

Chapter 415 Is this deal a good deal?

"According to what you said, this really won't work.

"Uh-huh."

Lin Caisang nodded.

"It's not just a question of whether to take risks or not. I don't pick the fruits myself to make a lot of money. Those that are broken will be thrown away directly. But if I really collect fruits in the village, will they be as careful as I am?

Things like loquats that need to be pitted are okay, but like cherries or plums that can be picked in a few days, there is no need to pit them. If there is a bug in it and the customer eats it, then my shop is not ruined. Yet?

Do I need to put up a sign in my store saying that it is normal for some dried fruits to be spoiled and that the store is not responsible? "

"Ah.

After hearing her words, Ya Molian smiled.

"The way you put it, then I think you shouldn't pick wild fruits in the woods. Instead, you should buy thousands of acres of land and grow your own fruit trees to pick and make dried fruits."

"Tsk, that's a good idea."

Lin Caisang's eyes lit up and he felt that Ya Molian's idea was really a good one.

Yamolian: "..."

Couldn't this girl see that he was just talking casually to tease her?

But Lin Caisang thinks this idea is really good, and she has the strength now.

"Brother Mo Lian, didn't I treat the eldest princess before? The rewards on the imperial list are not only gold medals and ten thousand taels of gold, but also ten thousand acres of fertile land. Do you think I can pick out these ten thousand acres of fertile land myself? ah?"

"What do you think?" Ya Molian asked her.

How can you, as a subject, dare to pick and choose what is bestowed upon you by the emperor? Where does this put the emperor's face?

"I think... it should be okay, right?"

Lin Caisang was not sure, but she felt that if she discussed it carefully with the prince, it should be possible.

"If it doesn't work, I'll give them a little more 'fearlessness'. That's it, right?"

Yamolian: "..."

He was really going to be defeated by this girl.

"Sang'er, if I say that the pill you refined in Hongling Town, 'No Fear', is worth a thousand pieces of gold in Liang Kingdom and the countries surrounding Liang Kingdom, do you still think this deal is a good deal?"

he asked her tentatively.

She had given her five pills of 'Fearless' before

He was told to keep it with him just in case. Since he didn't know the medicinal properties of this elixir, he asked Jiang Zuo to take one of the elixirs and ask his master. As a result, he only got the news about this elixir recently.

According to the news from Jiang Zuo's master, the elixir refined by the little girl is worth thousands of gold.

Isn't it better to go and negotiate terms with others with ten thousand taels of silver instead of buying some fields of your own choice?

However, Lin Caisang didn't think so. After hearing his words, she shrugged indifferently.

"Of course it's a good deal. I didn't spend any money refining these elixirs, and I can't sell them on my body. It's better to do something meaningful with them. How nice, what do you think?"

Yamolian: "..."

What was he going to say? The girl you like can only be pampered by yourself.

"Okay, as long as you are happy, we will go to Jian'an City to see which place you like. Just ask the emperor for it."

"You think Jian'an City is my home, and you can get anything you want." Lin Caisang said to him angrily.

Which place do you want to come to from the emperor? The emperor is not her uncle. If the place is really attractive to her, it must be excellent. Can the emperor give it to her? It was just to cure the poison of the eldest princess, but not to save the emperor.

It's different after all.
