

Star of Space 424

Chapter 424 No matter how much you think about it, it won't help.

"Ya Guihua's family, let's not have any contact with each other from now on.

This is the first person who dares to plot against her like this since he came back from time travel. Even if Liu Yushui wants to plot against her, he only thinks about it in his mind and has no chance to realize it.

"Then what's going on with Qing'er? Does she like Yaguman?" she asked.

Lin Caiqing was only eleven years old. He knew what a man was at this time, so why did he get involved with Ya Guman?

This was something she never expected.

"She's so full of love."

Thinking of his little sister, Lin Changfeng felt even more helpless.

"Ms. Yazhu asked grandma to choose, either you marry Yacangman, or Qing'er marries Yaguman. She expected that Qing'er is so young, and she must have known Yaguman after seeing Yaguman's terrifying face. Crying, how can I think of..."

Who would have thought that Cai Qing, that girl, was fearless and didn't take Yagu Man's face to heart at all. Instead, she felt that someone with a down-to-earth personality like Yagu Man would definitely be a pain in the ass in the future, right? ?

Lin Caisang was also helpless.

In this day and age, how come a girl at such a young age knows how to plan for herself and how to choose a man?

Although she said she was only thirteen years old, her actual age was not. She felt embarrassed that she was too close to Ya Mo Lian, as if Ya Mo Lian was kidnapping a minor.

"This girl, it's true!"

Lin Changfeng was still worried, feeling that Lin Caiqing's decision was too reckless.

"You don't know anything yet, so you dare to make such a mess. How brave you are!"

"Brother Changfeng, don't worry, I'll talk to Qing'er when she comes out." Lin Caisang comforted him.

"But having said that, after all, it is Qing'er's own life-long event. We others can't make the decision. It depends on her own wishes. Moreover, everyone knows Yaguman's temperament. When it comes to marrying and living, he is also good. choose."

"That's what he said, but his hands..." Lin Changfeng was worried.

It doesn't matter if the face is ruined. Just like Qing'er herself said, the face is beautiful but cannot be used as food.

But what about the hand? If there is only one hand left, it will be inconvenient to do anything in the future, and making money will be restricted by that hand. In the end, it is not Qing'er who suffers.

"His hand... I'll show it to him later to see if it can be cured." Lin Caisang thought for a while and said.

There is no external injury, just sprained muscles and bones. Logically speaking, as long as he takes good care of himself, he can still do it like ordinary people.

And that face, wasn't it because she was there, how could it still stump her with just a few scars?

"Stop talking, Brother Changfeng, don't worry. Just read a book and take a step back. If Qing'er really identifies Yaguman, then I will go all out and take his hand with him. My face has been healed. If Qing'er doesn't want to, there are so many people in our family, so we are not afraid of the Ya family coming to make trouble."

she advised.

"Um."

Lin Changfeng nodded.

This is all that can be done now. No matter how much he thinks about it, it won't help.

...

In Lin Laojie and Lu Qiubo's room, Lin Caiqing had her mouth flattened and her head lowered, not even daring to look at her grandma and grandma.

"Hey, you, what can grandma say about you?"

Lu Qiubo was really angry with her. Could she agree to this important matter of marriage just by opening her mouth?
