Chapter 429 Life goes on as usual

"You still want me to lie down on the bed?"

Ya Molian looked at her steadily, as if asking her, would you like to lie down on the bed?

Lin Caisang was speechless for a while, feeling deeply that if she was allowed to lie in bed, let alone a few days, just a day and a night, she would feel like she was useless!

"Then you have to work less. You don't know your own body. You must take good care of it." She said.

"You're here."

Ya Molian chuckled and said.

"Yeah, I'm here."

Lin Caisang rolled his eyes at him angrily.

Look, just because of her presence, the drying house on this deserted mountain looks the same without her, so he can do it well.

She didn't even know what she came up to the mountain to do.

"Master, how is your family?" After a while, Zhong You opened his mouth to ask Lin Caisang.

"It's okay, life goes on as usual."

Lin Caisang replied to him, and suddenly remembered that it had been a long time since Zhong You came to her place. She had also considered taking him back to Zhong's house to have a look. After all, when she brought him out, Mr. Zhong was not at home. .

"We are going to the county tomorrow. Do you want to come with us and visit Zhong's house by the way?" she asked.

"this....."

After hearing her words, Zhong You stopped moving his hands, and after a while he gritted his teeth and looked at her.

"Is that okay?" he asked.

Thinking that Lin Caisang might misunderstand, he quickly explained.

"Master, don't get me wrong. What I mean is that when I left like this, my father must not have known what happened. If I go back like this, won't it embarrass you?"

He believed that his departure from the Zhong family must have been embellished by the old man and Zhong Yun in front of his father. His father must not have understood the situation at that time, and maybe he would blame him for being ignorant and running away from home over the smallest things. .

He was really afraid that his father would complain to Lin Caisang as well.

"What can I misunderstand?" Lin Caisang chuckled.

"Let me ask you, do you want to go back? If you want to go back and have a look, then I will go with you."

"I....."

Zhong You still hesitated. He didn't know how to go back to that home.

"go!"

Before Zhong You could say anything, or Lin Caisang could persuade him, Ya Mo Lian faintly uttered a word.

Zhong You looked at him.

"If you don't go home and solve the things that need to be solved, you have no intention of learning medical skills, and Sonny won't dare to teach you. This step must be taken," Yamolian said.

Hearing this, Zhong You looked at Lin Caisang and saw that she was nodding, obviously agreeing with Ya Molian's words.

"Okay, then I'll go." He nodded.

Since it always has to be solved, let's solve it as soon as possible.

During the days when he came to Yacun, Lin Caisang didn't teach him any medical skills. In fact, he didn't know what was going on. He was not in a hurry at all, but felt like he was breathing a sigh of relief.

He must have been thinking about things at home and couldn't calm down to learn medical skills from Lin Caisang.

Early the next morning, Zhong You was waiting outside the Lin family courtyard, and Ya Molian had also arrived at the Lin family.

When Lin Caisang was sent out by Lu Qiubo, he couldn't help but froze for a moment when he saw Zhong You outside the hospital, and turned to look at his granddaughter.

"Sangsang, will he come with you?" she asked.

Sang Sang and Mo Lian were going to see the shop. Why would he follow someone who had no memory?
