Chapter 432 What a self-deception

"Miss Liu..."

"Mr. Zhong, when I just came in, I saw Mr. Zhong outside. Why don't you go and invite him back?" Lin Caisang asked him.

Hearing Lin Caisang mention his old father, Mr. Zhong's expression suddenly turned bad, and the corners of his mouth became stiff. He glanced at the blurry figure under the rain curtain and shook his head.

"Let's go, let's go in. It's raining heavily outside. Let's go in first."

...

After entering the house, holding the tea just brought by the servant, Lin Caisang heard everything that happened in the Zhong family after Mr. Zhong left Zhong You.

It turned out that after Mr. Zhong returned from collecting and renting fields in the countryside, he heard many bad words about Zhong You from Mr. Zhong and Zhong Yun, saying how he was unfilial and wanted to go with Lin Caisang despite the old man's objection. To become a disciple, you must break away from the Zhong family.

Master Zhong naturally didn't believe these words, but he couldn't refute them in front of the old master. Afterwards, he ordered someone to investigate secretly, but found out that his father and son had beaten Zhong Yun black and blue behind his back.

He was so angry immediately that he ordered Zhong Yun to kneel in the ancestral hall.

Who knew that Mr. Zhong would not comply, and even said that he would hand over the power of running the family to Zhong Yun, a prodigal son!

How could he follow the old man's wishes? If the power of running the family is really handed over to Zhong Yun, doesn't it mean that Zhong Yun will destroy the Zhong family?

However, under Zhong Yun's coaxing, Mr. Zhong also called the patriarchs of the Zhong family and said that if they did not hand over the power of the family, they would divide the family and give Zhong Yun's share. Hand it over.

When he thought about it, he had no choice but to divide the family's property into three parts. One part was given to Zhong Yun and his mother, the other part was left to himself, and the other part was naturally given to Zhong You.

Although one of his two sons was a legitimate son and the other was a concubine, in his heart, the one he valued more was Zhong You.

In addition, Mr. Zhong also asked him to move out of the Zhong family on the grounds that he stayed in the Zhong family. He had no choice but to move to this village.

A few days later, Zhong Yun actually gave the old man another idea, trying to coax Zhong You's share of the property into his own. How could he agree? He refused directly.

This time, he offended both Mrs. Zhong and his wife Zhong Fu.

Everyone wanted to come and accuse him.

He had no choice but to make up his mind to make peace with the Zhongfu family, and then took his name out of the Zhong family's genealogy to show his determination, so Zhong Yun did not dare to cause trouble with him.

Unexpectedly, Zhong Yun felt that Mr. Zhong was no longer of use, so he kicked him out of the Zhong family.

"How could this happen? Zhong Yun has gone too far!"

Zhong You was so angry after listening to his father recounting the events of the past month that he really wanted to go to Zhong Yun and beat him up to relieve the hatred in his heart.

"Then what is grandfather doing outside?" he asked.

Wasn't it Zhong Yun who drove his grandfather out? Then why is grandfather still waiting outside for Zhong Yun?

"Your grandfather is this person..."

When he mentioned his father, Mr. Zhong sighed again.

"He hasn't figured it out yet. He thinks Zhong Yun is just having a childish tantrum with him and will come to take him back soon."

Zhong You: "..."

How self-deceiving this must be. He knows better than anyone what kind of temper Zhong Yun is. He is almost carved from the same mold as his mother.
