Chapter 434 Have you checked the Zhong family?

"Sister's side should give it to her. She has not had an easy life these years, but Fu's side..."

Fu was a person who would never give up until he achieved his goal. He gave her a share. Although she didn't deserve it, it also made them no longer care about each other.

"It doesn't matter if I give it to her, it will give her no reason to come to the house to cause trouble again."

To put it bluntly, with Fu's temperament, even if he gives her, he may not feel that it is enough. If he really doesn't give it, there will be many troubles in the future. Now the entire Zhong family is in Zhong Yun's hands. How can it be less? One thing and one thing less.

"Zhong You, it's rare for you to come home once. I don't know when the next time you will come back. Why don't you stay with your father these few days? I just have something to do. I won't come back until I finish the things over there. Take you back with me.

Lin Caisang suggested that father and son should have a lot to say.

"Only by arranging things at home can you be able to learn medical skills from me with peace of mind."

"this....."

After hearing what Lin Caisang said, Zhong You wanted to refuse.

He still thought that he could help his master when he went to Yejun, but Lin Caisang was right when he said something. Only when Anli made him feel at ease could he learn medical skills from Lin Caihe without any worries.

Moreover, studying is not a matter of just returning home whenever he wants. He really wants to have a good talk with his father.

"Thank you, Master, for your understanding.

Without any further hesitation, he thanked him.

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded and stood up without staying any longer.

After saying goodbye to Mr. Zhong, he and Ya Molian went out. Outside the door, Ban Jue saw them coming out and quickly opened the oil umbrella.

"I never imagined that the Zhong family would become so torn apart." Walking towards the carriage, she spoke quietly to Ya Molian.

"It's good to be like this now. If Mr. Zhong had been loyal to his filial piety, I'm afraid he wouldn't be able to keep his only family fortune." The two of them walked towards the carriage, and Ya Molian spoke.

Wherever he looked, Mr. Zhong glared at them fiercely, as if he wanted to eat them.

But at this moment, Lin Caisang was not angry at all. He just felt that this old man was really pathetic. He was used by his grandson for this purpose, and he kicked him away after using him.

The key is that until this moment, Mr. Zhong still doesn't know his fault. He still thinks that his precious grandson will come to take him back.

Isn't it sad and pitiful?

"I really don't know how Mr. Zhong managed to keep his share of the family business in the past. It's a miracle that it was passed down to his son safely." She sighed after getting on the carriage.

"As far as I know, the Zhong family's business was handed over directly to Zhong You's father by Mr. Zhong's father, and was not handled by Mr. Zhong." Ya Molian replied.

Since she wants to accept Zhong You as her disciple, he will naturally want to find out the Zhong family, and he will definitely know a lot about the Zhong family.

"So that's it?"

After hearing his words, Lin Caisang felt relieved.

"Have you checked the Zhong family? Tell me."

"Want to hear?"

Ya Molian looked at her, chuckled, and asked.

Lin Caisang nodded immediately.

"Actually, it's nothing. Mr. Zhong's grandfather was a resolute man. He only loved his first wife all his life and never thought about taking concubines. But later, I don't know why, but his first wife had nothing to do with him for several years. Due to the pressure from his family, he took a concubine and became pregnant within a year. It happened that at this time, his first wife was also pregnant with his child.
