

Star of Space 435

Chapter 435 A complete white-eyed wolf

Therefore, Mrs. Zhong and his eldest brother, a concubine, came into the world at almost the same time. Unfortunately, Mr. Zhong's temperament when he was young was very similar to Zhong Yun, while his eldest brother, a concubine, was a capable and responsible person. .

Mr. Zhong's grandfather, in order to prevent his ancestral family business from being ruined by Mr. Zhong, split the ancestral business into two before his death. Because Mr. Zhong was not good at management, he handed over the power of the family to Mr. Zhong and transferred the ancestral business to Mr. Zhong. All the properties in the family were handed over to Mr. Zhong, hoping that Mr. Zhong could at least be able to hold on to those properties despite his father's ruin. "

"So that's what happened."

Lin Caisang was simply stunned after hearing what he said.

"I was thinking just now, how could Mr. Zhong get the consent of the Zhong clan leader and others when he divided the family property into three parts, but it turns out there is a precedent, so it's no wonder.

"Mr. Zhong watched helplessly as half of his family property, which was supposed to belong to him, was taken away by a concubine brother, and his half was not in his own hands. Therefore, he not only hated his own brother, but also He also hates his own son."

As the carriage walked toward Ye County, Ya Molian talked about the Zhong family in Lin Caisang's ears.

"But his expenses are all controlled by his son. He cannot beat or scold him, so..."

"So he gave up this hatred to Zhong You?" Lin Caisang accepted Ya Molian's words.

"Zhong Youben is the son of a concubine, and... he looks very similar to Mr. Zhong when he was young." Ya Molian said.

Therefore, Mr. Zhong can be said to have used both his hatred for his eldest brother and his son on Zhong You.

"snort."

Lin Caisang sneered.

"As for him, isn't he afraid that no one will die when he gets old?"

Her son treated him like an ancestor, which she could see from the first time she arrived at the Zhong family. But this was not enough. She didn't feel stupid after being deceived by a scoundrel-like grandson.

"Ha, he was wrong again. He still thought that Zhong Yun, his grandson, would take care of him until he died."

Who knew that Zhong Yun was a complete white-eyed wolf?

"It's still early to arrive at Ye County, so you should rest for a while." Ya Molian said to her.

"Why should I sleep? If you want to sleep, you should sleep."

Lin Caisang glared at him angrily, seeing how carefully he could talk about the Zhong family's affairs, which showed that he spent a lot of effort on her, and everyone around her was checked by him. Bar?

"How have you been feeling these past few days? Take it over here and I'll take your pulse again." She asked.

"The same goes for taking your pulse."

Ya Molian said bluntly, but still put his hand on her knee.

"Your pulse is so... Phew!"

After a while, Lin Caisang's hand was held by Ya Molian and he sighed heavily.

"I'm telling you, try not to use it if you don't need it in the future. Your body will really be unable to bear it. Let me tell you this. The more you use your internal energy, the faster it will be activated in your body. The frequency of poisonous attacks, do you know what frequency is?"

That is, before you use your internal power, the poison may occur once a month. After you use your internal power, it is very likely that the poison will appear in half a month. Unless you really don't want your own life, otherwise just give it to me. a little. "
