

Star of Space 438

Chapter 438 Really reminded me

"Let's build it, but we still have to look at where the fertile land is first. It's impossible to do what I said before. I can just go wherever I want. The royal family doesn't belong to my family, does it?"

"That is the imperial city of the Liang Kingdom. Ya Molian reminded her.

"Even outside the city, every inch of land is a valuable place. It has already been taken away by the dignitaries in the imperial city. How could it be your turn to be a little girl?"

"Huh? What do you mean by that?" Lin Caisang narrowed his eyes and looked at him with confusion on his face.

"It means that those ten thousand acres of fertile land will either be converted into real money and given to you. Even if you really want fertile land, it will not be in Jian'an. The most likely possibility is that it will be given to you in other cities other than Jian'an." "

Ya Molian explained.

"Besides, Sonny, do you really want the ten thousand acres of fertile land that the royal family rewarded?"

he asked her.

She didn't even want to tell others her name. If these ten thousand acres of fertile land were really under the eyes of the royal family, it would be a huge burden.

"You really reminded me."

Lin Caisang was stunned for a moment, but soon understood. She put the white cloth in his hand and nodded.

"We really can't just come here with these ten thousand acres of fertile land. So let's put it this way, I can choose a place by myself and buy the woods and fields, and I don't have to use the fields that the emperor rewarded, which would end up being tied up and uncomfortable. "

"Um."

Ya Molian nodded.

"It's very good outside Qianlin County."

Lin Caisang: "..."

Why does she think Yamolian has a soft spot for Qianlin County?

"Why didn't you say Yacun? Isn't it closer?" She blocked him angrily.

"Ya Village is too close, so it's hard to explain." Ya Molian chuckled and said.

"Right."

Lin Caisang thought the same way. If she really bought the ten thousand acres of forest in Yacun, everyone in the village would probably be scared to death by her.

"Let's not talk about this for now. Hurry up and change your clothes."

Looking at his clothes, she immediately pushed him to stand up and change his clothes.

"Okay, wait a minute."

Yamolian responded and went out.

...

After resting one night in Qiuyan, I originally wanted to walk around the streets early the next morning.

It's just that Lin Caisang didn't expect Ya Molian to work so efficiently. Before she went out, Exile Jue walked in with a piece of paper filled with the store's address.

"Palace Master, Miss Lin, these are the shops and addresses that are rented or sold in Ye County. You can go directly to these places when you go out today." Ban Jue handed the paper in his hand to Lin Caisang.

Lin Caisang took it and took a rough look.

"It looks like a lot, but you have to see it with your own eyes to know whether it's suitable for you." She looked at Ya Molian and said.

"Let's go."

Yamolian stood up.

Not long after, the carriage stopped outside a shop.

"This one is nice, go check it out."

Lifting the curtain and looking outside, Lin Caisang was finally satisfied.

The banning sentence for driving: "..."

If Miss Lin hadn't been by his side at this moment, he really wanted to ask his palace master, what was going on in Miss Lin's head?

They had already visited several small shops that could open snack shops, but Lin Caisang didn't like any of them, so he could only continue driving the carriage down.

She thought she would not like those shops, let alone this shop, but who would have thought that she would actually say that this place is good.
