

Star of Space 440

Chapter 440 Isn't it affordable enough?

He really wanted to remind his palace master, but it was a pity that the palace master still didn't look in his direction, all he could see was Miss Lin.

After hearing Lin Caisang's words, the house owner's eyes lit up. After looking at Lin Caisang's body carefully, he looked at Ya Molian again, making calculations in his mind.

These two people are both young. It seems that they have just come out of the house and have no experience. Maybe he can give them a serious blow.

"Sir, girl, when I bought this restaurant, it cost eight thousand taels. Look, how about I sell it to you at the original price?" he suggested.

"Eight thousand taels?"

Lin Caisang chuckled, slowly moved his index finger across the pillar on the side, and shook his head.

"Boss, I sincerely want to buy this restaurant. You'd better give me a real price. Asking for such an exorbitant price doesn't look like doing business."

she said.

When the boss heard this, he felt unhappy and the smile on his face disappeared.

"Girl, how can you say that? Why am I asking so much? This is the most realistic price. If you think it's too expensive, you might as well go out and find out what other restaurants you want to buy cost. "

"Of course I can't buy other restaurants." Lin Caisang shrugged.

"But the asking price of eight thousand taels for your restaurant is really sky-high, isn't it? If you don't understand, I can explain it to you.

"you....."

The boss was so angry.

Could it be that this seemingly young girl has a pair of strange eyes?

"If you want to say something, then I will listen."

He wanted to see what kind of flowers this little girl could say.

"Okay, this is what you asked me to say."

Lin Caisang looked at Ya Molian, winked playfully, and then looked at the restaurant.

"First of all, let's talk about the comparison between your restaurant and other restaurants. They are all century-old restaurants. Which restaurant doesn't have a large group of regular customers and connections, but what about your place? I don't need to say more. Bar?

If a newly opened restaurant wants to gain a foothold among so many old restaurants, it must either have someone who can make the guests come here looking at that person's face, or it must have money and can ask for a lot of money from the restaurant. Smash it down to create momentum and reputation first. Does your restaurant have one?

Based on this alone, the price you offered for the eight thousand taels will have to be reduced by two thousand taels. I still said too little. "

"you....."

The boss opened his mouth to refute, but Lin Caisang really talked about the pain in his heart. He couldn't even refute anyone.

"Don't speak yet, listen to me."

When the boss wanted to speak, Lin Caisang raised his hand to interrupt him regardless of whether he could say anything.

"Let's calculate the price of the six thousand taels in your restaurant. According to what you just said, the monthly rent is one hundred taels, haha." She chuckled.

"What's wrong with the rent of one hundred taels? Isn't it affordable enough?"

The boss doesn't understand. His rent of one hundred taels is low enough, right? Is this still wrong?

"The rent of one hundred taels is quite affordable, but I want to ask you, on this most prosperous street in Ye County, which restaurant's rent is only worth one hundred taels per month?"

Lin Caisang asked him back.

"I'm afraid even renting those small shops will cost more than one hundred taels per month, right?" Lin Caisang asked again.
