

Star of Space 441

Chapter 441

"this....."

The boss immediately choked on his own saliva.

He actually forgot about this problem, but can you blame him? Before, he thought they just wanted to rent his restaurant, but he didn't expect that they would want to buy it.

If it is really rented, the rent can be increased again.

But if it is sold, then there is only one chance to make money.

"You can propose a rent of one hundred taels per month. It shows that you know what kind of embarrassing situation this restaurant is in, right?" Just as he was racking his brains to think of how to explain, he heard Lin Cai say Sang asked him softly.

"Based on this, boss, I'm afraid no one will want to buy your restaurant even if you ask for five thousand taels, unless he is a relative of the county governor.

After listening to her words, the boss really wanted to vomit blood.

He spent 6,000 taels on a nice restaurant when he bought it. Although there was some element of being deceived in it at first, in the eyes of this little girl, even 5,000 taels were no longer worth it. Woolen cloth?

"Girl, you..."

He opened his mouth to say something, but Lin Caisang still didn't give him a chance to speak.

"There's more."

"besides?!"

The boss's eyes widened.

In just a few words, his restaurant had already become five thousand taels. If she kept talking, he would have given her the restaurant for free.

"Boss, your restaurant must have been closed for a long time. Look at the dust here. Except for the footprints of a few of us, there are no other footprints. It can be seen that..."

Lin Caisang looked at the wet footprints on the ground and raised his eyebrows.

"Apart from us, let alone buyers, you're afraid you won't even have a tenant, right?"

boss:"....."

Dense beads of sweat appeared on his forehead, but he saw that Lin Caisang hadn't finished speaking yet.

"So, boss, you see, no one is interested in your restaurant. Don't you have to lower the price? Five thousand taels is really expensive, four thousand taels is about the same..."

"What? Four thousand taels?"

The boss had a mouthful of blood on his chest that was about to spurt out.

"Tsk."

Lin Caisang clicked his tongue and shook his head again.

"It's really unlucky to buy a restaurant with four. It's so unlucky. Otherwise...Boss, look at 3,888 taels. What's the price? If you think it's okay, I'll buy this restaurant." "

"Ahem, cough!"

Not only the boss, but also the banished person on the side coughed lightly.

This Lin Caisang... Why didn't he think her eloquence was so good before? Although the boss bargained for 8,000 taels, it was too expensive, but considering the location of this restaurant, the price of 5,000 taels was still within the range.

He was actually beaten to less than 4,000 taels by Lin Caisang.

The key thing is that, after listening to Lin Caisang's words, he felt that she was absolutely right, without any mistakes or omissions.

"Three...three thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight taels..."

The boss's mood at this moment was really indescribable. He looked at Lin Caisang like he was looking at a monster.

Where did this girl learn her eloquence? If he had half the eloquence of this girl, I guess his restaurant wouldn't go out of business, right?

"Girl, you are... a bit too cruel, aren't you?"

"Um?"

Lin Caisang looked up at his boss with a look of confusion and confusion.

"Did I say something wrong just now? Boss, if I said something wrong somewhere, you can tell me and we will try our best to correct it, ah."
