

Star of Space 444

Chapter 444 You feed me food

Has she been busy here for so long? So busy that you don't even know when Ya Molian came over? I touched my belly, and miraculously I wasn't hungry at all.

"Does the meat in the Roujiamo you eat for lunch taste good? I'll get you some more to fill your belly first?" Ya Molian asked her.

Lin Caisang: "..."

He raised his head and looked at him in confusion.

"Did I eat Roujiamo?"

Why doesn't she know it herself? When did this happen? Why didn't anyone tell her?

"It's not you who feeds me, is it?" There was a vague thought in her heart, and she knew that she might have guessed it right.

Sure enough, after listening to her words, Ya Molian nodded, indicating that that was the case.

"Then let's eat meat buns tonight." She opened her mouth and said.

She said that she ate Roujiamo for lunch, but she didn't even know what the Roujiamo tasted like. It seems that she can't be so careful in doing things in the future. Fortunately, it was Yamolian this time. If it changes someday What should I do if I marry someone else and want to harm her?

Even if you want to work hard, you have to go to the Jinzhu Space and can no longer be outside.

Well, let's do it.

"good."

Ya Molian responded and glanced at the papers on the table.

"Pack these things away and let's go out to eat."

Lin Caisang nodded and put away all the useful papers. The other ones that were damaged by her paintings were also put aside, ready to be donated to the kitchen stove.

"It seems that the rice paper you bought is still useful." Ya Molian looked at the rice paper that had been discarded by paintings and said.

Before, he was wondering what the girl wanted to use for buying so much paper. Now he saw that it was all needed, but it might not be enough. He had to prepare more for her.

"Well."

Lin Caisang choked at his words. Does this mean she wasted too much paper?

But what can be done? She is using a pencil and no eraser. If she makes a mistake at any step, she will have to draw again. She has already been careful in her drawing.

Moreover, she thought that if she used a brush, the paper folded in her hand would probably be more than that. No matter how much rice paper she bought, it might not be enough. Using a pencil would already minimize the loss.

"Let's go, let's go, I'm hungry, aren't you?"

"Heh, let's go."

Ya Molian chuckled and took her to the kitchen.

...

With Ya Mo Lian by her side, Lin Caisang could really relax a lot. All the renovation of the restaurant was left to the people in Qi Yuan, so she didn't have to worry about it.

As well as looking for people who will be needed for the shop in the future, you can also transfer them from Qiyan first. When suitable people are found later, you can replace the people from Qiyan. This is what Ya Molian insists on. Lin Caisangdu Unable to resist him, I could only follow his advice.

After the affairs in Ye County were settled, Ya Molian took Lin Caisang back, but they stopped again when they arrived in Qianlin County.

"What's wrong?"

Along the way, because she had been busy for a long time, Lin Caisang was forced to close her eyes and rest by Ya Molian. When she arrived in Qianlin County and the carriage stopped, she opened her confused eyes.

Shouldn't she go back? Why did she stop in Qianlin County again? She felt a little confused.

"Is there something going on in Qianlin County?" she asked.

"Palace Master."

Outside the carriage, Ban Jue turned his head and looked at the carriage curtain.

"Find an inn and stay." Ya Mo Lian ordered Ban Jue.

"yes."

The banishment was answered.
