Chapter 451 An opportunity to become famous

Moreover, those people didn't know where she came from or where she was going. They didn't even know her name. Wouldn't the final result be that those people who were doing evil in the dark would lose money to earn money for her?

"Perhaps, they think you are easy to bully." Ya Molian thought for a while before saying this.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Is she easy to bully?

Well, to those people, she was a nameless, powerless person who was indeed easy to bully.

But what's the point of bullying a 'weak' woman like her, and she doesn't have the words 'she's easy to bully' written on her face, right?

She is a medical student, and she is known as one of the girls who knows how to detoxify. Everyone knows that someone who can detoxify must be a master of poison making. Offending a master of poison making is worse than offending the royal family's thousands of troops. It's scary.

What do those people think?

"Those people wouldn't want to drive me into despair, and then they would be kind and compassionate and recruit me into their hands, right?"

If it was as she guessed, then she could only sigh. These people were really big-hearted. They dared to reach out to someone who didn't even know the details.

"It's not about thinking, it's about affirmation."

Turning his eyes, Ya Molian looked at her steadily and spoke.

"If you and I hadn't known each other since childhood, and I had just met you by chance, I would have wanted to recruit you into my palace. This is what every normal person would have.

However, he would not be so stupid as to push someone into a desperate situation and then reach out to recruit him. Even if such a person was really recruited, would he really dare to use it?

"call."

Lin Caisang took a deep breath and exhaled heavily.

"The brains of you charlatans are indeed beyond the imagination of ordinary people."

She shook her head and really couldn't figure it out. If they really recruited her as they wished, wouldn't they be afraid that she would secretly spread some poison one day and directly kill those people?

"However, if you have such an opportunity to become famous, wouldn't it be a pity not to seize it? Brother Mo Lian, are you right?"

"right."

Ya Molian raised her hand and touched her forehead lightly.

"There are many people in Jian'an City. If you catch someone casually, you may catch someone who is closely related to the royal family. This kind of place is very dangerous, but it is also easy to make money.

It's a pity that we are in Yejun and can't come here often. Otherwise, you don't need to open a snack shop in Yejun, just open a medicine shop in Jian'an City and you can enjoy it for the rest of your life. "

Hearing this, Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows.

"Enjoy a lifetime?"

Now she is almost too busy to keep her feet off the ground. Is this called enjoying herself for the rest of her life?

"Um."

Seeing the confusion in her words, Ya Molian nodded seriously.

"Although I really want to say that you can actually be a rice bug at home safely. My property is enough to support you for several lifetimes, but I also know that you are different from those ordinary girls, so you will definitely not agree with what I say."

It's not that he doesn't agree with her being exposed outside. He naturally agrees with the girl's family having her own career, but he still doesn't want her to be too tired.

"You do understand me."

Lin Caisang grinned and said with a smile.

If you want her to be a bastard in the house... you'd better kill her, she won't have such a good life!

"Brother Mo Lian, what do you think will happen if I really want to open a pharmacy in Jian'an City? Will the business be booming?"

suddenly, she asked him.
