

Star of Space 453

Chapter 453 What are you going to do?

But in this place, she had never heard of anyone who could come to ask for an explanation if something broke after buying something. They were all considering themselves unlucky.

"Once something is done, it must be done thoroughly, right?"

"You are right." Ya Molian followed her words.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang pursed her lips. Her brother Mo Lian's words were becoming more and more interesting.

If he said 'you're right', it would mean that he agreed with her words, but now that he added the word 'du', the meaning was completely different.

This man was clearly thinking that she had suffered a loss in this matter and should go to the prince to make up for the loss. But she said this again, so he had to reluctantly agree with her.

Only then did he use the word 'du' to enhance his tone.

"How about I go discuss it with the eldest prince?" she asked him tentatively.

"good."

This time, Ya Molian didn't hesitate and answered directly.

"puff!"

Lin Caisang really laughed.

...

After a while, she took out three bottles of scar removal cream from her small bag and handed them to Zeng Yulang. Then she handed the old man Zeng the four hundred taels of silver notes, and her task was completed.

"Miss Langzhong, what are you going to do with those people outside?" Zeng Yulang asked when he saw that she was about to leave.

Could it be that he had guessed wrong, that Lin Caisang actually didn't want to pay attention to those people outside and just wanted to heal his face and leave? She is a person who doesn't care about fame, she just wants to relax in the clouds and wild cranes?

It shouldn't be the case. If that were the case, then of course Lin Caisang wouldn't come to treat his facial injury. They were not relatives.

"People outside..."

Hearing him mention the outside, Lin Caisang frowned and looked in the direction of the courtyard door.

Here, she could still only hear the noisy voices outside, all talking about her and how to invite her back. It can be seen that those people outside also heard her and Old Man Zeng, Zeng Yulang's voices.

Moreover, she also heard those people whispering outside the eldest princess's house to withdraw people, saying that people were already waiting for them.

"Brother Yulang, can I ask you a favor?" She looked at Zeng Yulang and asked.

"Yes, yes, sir, please tell me."

Zeng Yulang nodded quickly and responded. Lin Caisang had already healed his face, so what if he was a favor? Not to mention one favor, he would be willing to do ten or a hundred.

"Please tell the people outside that any medicine you want to buy can be registered with you. When I come back from the princess's mansion later, I will stop by to pick up the order they placed. As for what they said they want to invite me to It is impossible to be a guest anywhere. If they are worried, please ask them to bring the injured people here and wait outside the door. I will help take a look when I come back. "

"ah?"

Zeng Yulang was stunned by what she said.

"Ms. Langzhong, are you... going to treat their injuries here?"

"Not here."

Lin Caisang shook his head. This was someone else's home, not hers. How could she do something like occupying a magpie's nest?

"Let them wait in the alley. If they don't want to wait, get out. As for those who want the scar removal cream directly, you can write it down for me later and I'll get the order."

She was very busy, but she didn't have time for those people to go to their house one by one to do this and that. Since they were the ones who came to beg her for medicine, they had to follow her rules.
