Chapter 461 Why can't you be nice to others?

Seeing that they finally calmed down, Old Man Zeng asked while the iron was hot.

Sure enough, after being coaxed and threatened by them, those people finally remembered who they were and who Lin Caisang was. They could only stand obediently and wait for Zeng Yulang to ask them their names. What medicine should I get?

"Okay, I've already registered it here."

After half an hour, Zeng Yulang put down his pen and ink and looked at the people who had not left.

"Also, the doctor girl also said that the medicines she sells are absolutely pure and good medicines. The price is incomparable with those in ordinary pharmacies. You'd better take advantage of it. Before the doctor's daughter came, she went to talk to her master.

In other words, if you want to bring a patient at home, let the doctor take a look at it in person, check the pulse and then give medication, that's fine too. "

After saying this, Zeng Yulang only felt a gust of wind blowing over his body. He closed his eyes for a moment. When he opened his eyes again, there were no traces of those people anywhere. The wind was blowing under his feet and they ran away without a trace. .

"Yulang, where has the lady in the palace ever said such a thing?"

After everyone had left, Old Man Zeng looked at his son with a frown and asked.

Isn't his son a hindrance to the doctor's daughter? If so many people really bring all the patients here, then the doctor's daughter will be extremely busy, right? Didn't they become repaying kindness with enmity?

"Dad, you don't understand anything."

Zeng Yulang glanced at his father and grinned slightly.

"What don't you understand? Tell me." Old man Zeng asked.

Although he doesn't understand, as long as his son explains it clearly to him, he will understand, and he won't be a hindrance to the doctor's girl and his son in the future.

"Didn't you argue with me last time that you didn't tell outsiders about the doctor's daughter revealing the imperial title?" Zeng Yulang looked at the alley and saw that there was no one there, then lowered his voice and said to his father.

"nonsense!"

Old man Zeng glared at his son angrily.

He gets angry when he thinks of this. His own son doesn't believe him. He is such a failure as a father. It makes him angry to death.

"That's the imperial list. Can ordinary people like us be able to discuss royal matters?"

He is happy that his son's face can recover, but he also knows what to say and what not to say, okay? How is that possible for him to risk being caught and beheaded to talk about the royal family?

"I suspect that there are people who don't like the lady in the doctor's eyes and are deliberately trying to trip her up in our name." Zeng Yulang said.

"What?"

Old man Zeng was quite surprised.

"Those people... are really bastards. How long has it been since the doctor's daughter came to Jian'an City? She is also treating the eldest princess. How can she have time to provoke others? Why can't those bastards not be nice to others?"

Thinking about it really makes me angry.

"What's the matter? If our family gets better, the neighbors will still have to say some bitter words, let alone those people." Zeng Yulang said.

"Then these people just now..."

Old man Zeng raised his hand and pointed at the empty alley, somewhat confused.

There is no reason that such a smart doctor's daughter would not think of things that his son could think of. Those people might have some bad intentions in their hearts. How could she save them just because they said they were going to save them?

"That's why I told them to bring patients over if they can, and then let the doctor's daughter take care of herself, so as not to be tricked by others," Zeng Yulang said.
