

Star of Space 462

Chapter 462 No thinking at all

"Hmm, uh-huh.

Old man Zeng nodded repeatedly.

"Yulang, you did the right thing. This young lady is kind to our family. We have to think about her."

"Actually, Dad, I have another purpose for saying this." Zeng Yulang said again.

"What other purpose is there?"

Old man Zeng looked at his son again with puzzled eyes.

"Dad, our family is out of food." Zeng Yulang reminded.

If these people are still here, how are they going to buy food? He wanted to get rid of those people quickly so that they could take some time to buy groceries.

"Ouch."

Mentioning the empty kitchen at home, Old Man Zeng also shouted angrily.

"I'm patronizing those people, but I forgot that our family's savings are about to be wiped out. Come on, you stay at home, I'll go buy some food and come back."

With that said, he went back to the yard to get the vegetable basket.

"Dad, wait a minute, I'll go with you." Zeng Yulang also hurriedly chased after him.

"This time, buy more vegetables that can be stored. I guess those people will have to squat in front of our house for a few days before they get the medicine from the doctor."

"Then buy more."

Old man Zeng's voice came from the yard.

"Xu, look at the injury on Zeng Yulang's face. Is it really much better?" When the two of them entered the courtyard, two people walked out from the corner of the alley, looking at the wide open courtyard door.

"Is it even necessary for me to see this?"

The man named Xu glanced coldly at his companion.

So many people are watching. If it really doesn't work, why can't those people report it to their masters?

"You go back and ask the master, should we carry out the original plan or follow the new plan?"

"Okay, I'm going."

The companion nodded, turned around and left, but couldn't help but mutter.

"I really don't know what the master is thinking. We have already seen the person. Why can't we just arrest the person directly? Why bother to force the person into a corner? What is the purpose of it?"

Could it be that he likes to play with the little girl just like the master plays with the puppy next to him?

In the eldest princess's mansion.

Lin Caisang and the eldest princess chatted without a word. The eldest princess didn't think anything was wrong, but Lin Caisang ordered Aunt Bai beside her to bring a deck chair.

Then the eldest princess could only lie on the recliner and chat with Lin Caisang.

"I haven't asked you yet, what is the maiden's name?"

After chatting for a while, the eldest princess remembered that she didn't even know the name of this little girl.

However, it seems that no one knows the name of this doctor's girl. She is quite mysterious, but she doesn't know where she studied.

"My surname is Lin."

For some reason, the surname "Lin" just came out of his mouth, as if he didn't think about it at all.

When Lin Caisang said his last name was "Lin", he was stunned for a moment and muttered in his heart, why did he accidentally say his real last name?

"Forest....."

The eldest princess was also a little stunned. It seemed that the surname "Lin" reminded her of some past events.

After a while, she smiled at Lin Caisang.

"Miss Lin, I wonder where you live?" she asked.

"I....."

"Auntie, I'm back."

Just when Lin Caisang was about to answer again, he happened to hear the prince's voice.

She breathed a sigh of relief. Fortunately, she didn't give away all her secrets. She also cursed herself secretly. When did she have such a mouth that she couldn't even hide a secret? She just answered whatever people asked her. She really didn't. Her style.
