Chapter 465 The food is extremely cheap

...

Soon, Lin Caisang and Ya Molian went to see the three land deeds together, led by the prince himself.

Lin Caisang chose a place with mountains, rivers and beautiful scenery, took the land deed, and returned to the eldest princess's residence in a carriage, watching the guards busy putting the ten thousand taels of gold into her On the carriage.

"Brother Mo Lian, what do you mean the emperor wants to recruit me?"

Driving a carriage to the gate of Zeng Yulang's house, Lin Caisang was helped out of the carriage and asked Ya Molian.

"It's obvious."

Ya Molian didn't think too much and replied directly.

His son-in-law is so good and capable, everyone would want to take her under his wing, so why is it so strange that the emperor wants to recruit her?

"I have to thank the eldest prince this time. Otherwise, if the emperor really asks me to stay when I enter the palace to receive the reward, I don't know what to do."

Lin Caisang said.

Not to mention other things, she also wants to open a spice shop in Jian'an City, and she has already asked the prince for permission.

Although the eldest prince refused several times and did not want to accept her money, she still gave it, five thousand taels, which made her feel distressed, but she also knew that five thousand taels was considered low for a shop in Jian'an City. Yes.

"What can we do? Just leave." Ya Molian said.

He didn't care whether he was an emperor or not. He dared to set his sights on Sonner. Although he wouldn't go into the palace at night and beat him up, he didn't need to give him a good look.

Lin Caisang: "..."

If she were to leave directly in the palace, wouldn't she be regarded as a monster? It's a shame he came up with such a 'good' solution!

However, it was useless to say this now. Nothing happened anyway, and she was happy and at ease.

"arrive."

When we arrived at the door of Zeng Yulang's house, we saw that the courtyard door was closed tightly.

"It seems there is no one?"

She looked at Ya Molian.

"There is indeed no one." Ya Molian said with certainty.

"What's going on?" Lin Caisang was speechless. How could there be no one after such a long time? Could it be that all those people went to report to their master and haven't come back yet?

Even then, Old Man Zeng and Zeng Yulang should be at home, right?

Just as she was thinking about what was going on, Old Man Zeng and Zeng Yulang came back while talking. Old Man Zeng was carrying a bamboo basket on his back, and Zeng Yulang was not idle either, holding both hands. Carrying something.

"Ah, Miss Langzhong, you are back."

When Old Man Zeng saw the two of them, he quickly ran over, opened the locked courtyard door, and invited the two of them to go in together.

"Uncle Zeng, are you...are the vegetables in the market particularly cheap today?"

Lin Caisang was speechless when she saw that they bought almost enough food for a month. If she remembered correctly, the Zeng family consisted of old man Zeng and Zeng Yulang, father and son, right? Do you really need to save to this extent and buy so many vegetables at once?

"No way, the food in the market is not cheap any day." Old man Zeng smiled.

"Then what are you..." Lin Caisang was even more speechless.

Since it's not cheap, why buy so many?

"Why don't you buy some more to keep at home? I'm afraid I won't have time to buy them these days." Old man Zeng said.

"Well."

Lin Caisang was really choked by these words.

Suddenly I thought of what I saw at the door of Zeng's house before, and I immediately understood why Mr. Zeng and his son had to buy so many vegetables.
