Chapter 466: Scar removal cream is a turnip

It is estimated that when they leave this time, those people will definitely be blocking the door of Zeng's house waiting for her to show up. By then, the Zeng family father and son may not even dare to go out to buy groceries.

"It's causing trouble for you."

"Ms. Langzhong, tell me, what's the trouble?"

Old man Zeng put the bamboo basket on his shoulder on the ground. Zeng Yulang immediately picked it up and put it in the kitchen.

"Uncle Zeng, you have really raised a good son. I have also seen other people's scholars. They instruct their parents to do a lot of work. Unlike Brother Yulang, he can also help you with your work."

Lin Caisang looked at Zeng Yulang's back and smiled.

This Zeng Yulang is similar to her cousin Lin Changfeng. They are both people who know how to care for their elders. If such a person has a future, he will definitely be a good official.

"No."

When he mentioned his son, Old Man Zeng was also smiling, and there was even a trace of pride on his lips.

"My son, I am not boasting. There is no scholar in Jian'an City who can compare with him. He carries water and chops firewood at home, does laundry and cooks, etc. He competes with me to do everything."

But as he spoke, the smile on his lips disappeared again.

It was precisely because his son was filial and knew how to do rough work at home that he was despised by others, his face was ruined, and his marriage was canceled.

But he never felt that his son had done anything wrong. Anyway, when his son became successful in the future, those people would regret it. Even if they regret it then, they would not be able to find a place to cry!

"Dad, please don't praise me and make me ashamed. It's embarrassing for you to say it, but I'm embarrassed to hear it."

Zeng Yulang put down his things and walked over, holding a few pieces of paper in his hand.

"Ms. Doctor, I recorded this according to the request of those people. Take a look first. I estimate that those people will come to your door soon. I will ask my father to move a table for you and put it at the entrance of the courtyard. Sit down. Let's talk to them."

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded.

She took a few pieces of paper from his hand and turned sideways to look at the items on the list with Ya Molian.

"Brother Mo Lian, these people are really fed up. They think my scar removal cream is a radish. It's surprising that there are ten boxes, but there are still a hundred boxes. What are you thinking about?"

Zeng Yulang remembered it in great detail. Which house did he belong to? The name of the host family? What do you want? How much? I remember them all clearly.

But when she saw the hundred boxes of scar removal cream, she really laughed out loud.

"Zhifu?"

Ya Molian looked at the hundred boxes pointed out by Lin Caisang with his index finger, and took a look at the name of the owner's family.

"Zhi Ling Yang?"

"Brother Mo Lian, do you know him?" Lin Caisang looked up at him and asked.

"I don't know him, but I have heard that Zhi Lingyang was the general of the Liang Kingdom. He killed countless enemies and suffered many injuries. This hundred boxes of scar removal cream is not too much for him."

Ya Molian said.

For a general who fought hard for his country, these things should have been awarded to him by the emperor, but there was no medicine that could remove all the scars on his body. Those on the market were only famous but not practical.

Now that he finally encountered this thing, Zhi Lingyang had no choice but to prepare a little more.

"It turns out he is a great general." Lin Caisang understood.

If you are a general, then don't be surprised. Even if you use it now, you may need to use it in the future. Keep a little extra to be prepared.
