Chapter 471 I've seen it, I've seen it

Well, after a few days, these two girls finally came up with their idea. They actually sneaked into his then deputy general's house in the dead of night and entered his bedroom, almost scaring him to death.

Then he heard the two girls warning him one after the other, either he should not marry either of them and be a bachelor for the rest of his life, or he should marry both of them!

Mr. Jin also had nothing to do with his two daughters, and actually persuaded him to be more liberal. His two daughters had good tempers, and they would definitely not quarrel when they got home.

From then on, there were two ladies in the Zhi Mansion. Jin An'an was the eldest sister, so she was called the eldest madam by the people in the mansion, and Jin Lele was the second sister, so she was called the little madam.

But that's not what he wants to say, but...

For example, on the wedding night, he thought that Jin Anan was his sister, so he went to her room...

As a result, what he saw was a closed door, and a message from the maid outside the door, asking him to go to Jin Lele's room. Then he had no choice but to go.

Then, he faced the same closed door. Finally, he had no choice but to spend his wedding night alone in the study.

Fortunately, this matter has not been spread out, otherwise, his brothers will laugh at him forever!

"General, you said..."

"Lele!"

Zhi Lingyang gritted his teeth and looked at Jin Lele.

"Okay, okay, I won't say anything anymore." Jin Lele flattened her mouth and said nothing more.

She just wanted to say that if the doctor's girl dared not come, she would catch her personally later. Anyway, with her skills, she could catch a few people.

However, as soon as her idea came to her mind, she saw a carriage approaching and stopped beside them.

"General Zhi, I've been waiting for a long time." Ya Molian looked at Zhi Lingyang and said calmly.

"you are....."

Zhi Lingyang looked at him, wondering who this man was. He didn't remember seeing this man before.

"Brother Mo Lian, are you here?"

Suddenly, Lin Caisang opened the car curtain and looked at Yamolian. He also saw Zhilingyang and Jin Lele.

"General, general, this is the doctor's girl, I've seen it, I've seen it." Jin Lele's eyes lit up when she saw Lin Caisang's face, and she pulled Zhi Lingyang's arm and said excitedly.

"Lele..."

Zhi Lingyang sighed softly and looked helplessly at his little lady.

"Okay, okay, I was wrong."

Jin Lele let go of her hand, but her eyes were still fixed on Lin Caisang, as if she was afraid that if she made a mistake, Lin Caisang would grow wings and fly.

"But I've really seen it. It's true. It's outside the gate of the eldest princess's mansion."

Just in case, she asked the housekeeper to wait at Zeng's house, while she went to watch outside the eldest princess's house.

Yesterday, when the guards of the eldest princess' mansion came out to drive people away, Lin Caisang happened to pass by. She naturally took a look at him, but there were so many guards present at that time. She was afraid of causing trouble to the general, so she did not dare to give him away directly. Taken captive.

"get off."

Ya Molian jumped out of the carriage and took Lin Caisang out of the carriage.

"General Zhi, I've seen you."

Lin Caisang greeted Zhi Lingyang.

"Are you the doctor's girl?"

When Zhi Lingyang saw Lin Caisang, he was simply shocked.

This little girl looked so talented. She was able to cure the poison in the eldest princess's body and restore her strength so quickly. He thought that the girl in the doctor's care that everyone was talking about must be a woman of the same age. Woolen cloth.
