

Star of Space 475

Chapter 475 I'm sorry, I can't heal this injury.

"Firstly: you can't find what I want to prepare; secondly: I will come to see the eldest princess for a follow-up visit in half a month, and I will take advantage of her follow-up visit to treat Madam Zhi's injuries.

"Then these days..."

"Of course I have my own things to do, and I can't stay in Jian'an City forever." Lin Caisang interrupted Jin Lele again.

"this....."

Jin Lele was interrupted by her, although she knew in her heart that she had made the doctor's girl unhappy.

But now it was her sister who was injured and had scars on her face, and she couldn't care less. As long as her sister's facial injury could be cured as soon as possible, she wouldn't be happy if others were unhappy.

"Ms. Doctor, look...can you treat my sister today? You will come to see the eldest princess for a follow-up examination in exactly half a month. Then you will come back to see my sister for a follow-up visit. Isn't this getting twice the result with half the effort?"

In a consultative tone, she proposed to Lin Caisang again.

"Yeah?"

Lin Caisang was not angry after hearing her words, but just raised his eyebrows slightly.

Mei Mu looked at the table on one side, walked straight over, and took out a few pieces of paper and her own pencil from her small satchel.

Ignoring other people's gazes, Youzi began to draw.

When Zhi Lingyang and Jin Anan saw her like this, although they didn't know what she was doing, they had embarrassed looks on their faces.

They did not stop Jin Lele, but also wanted to heal the injury on Jin Anan's face as soon as possible. They thought it would be okay to force the doctor's girl. She was just a little girl anyway, and this was the general's mansion.

"General, what is the doctor's girl doing?" Jin Lele was anxious, but because Lin Caisang's back was turned to them, she couldn't see anything, so she could only ask Zhi Lingyang on the side.

"Lele, you are so ridiculous." Zhi Lingyang looked at her and scolded softly.

"I'm not doing this for my sister."

Jin Lele didn't think there was anything wrong with what she said. The girl was a doctor herself. It was not her duty to treat illnesses and save people. What's more, after her sister was cured, they wouldn't pay for the consultation.

"She came willingly, we didn't force her..."

Before she could finish her words, she suddenly fell silent when she caught a glimpse of Ya Molian opposite her staring at her coldly. Almost immediately, a cold sweat broke out on her back.

She swallowed and shrank behind Zhi Lingyang.

Zhi Lingyang naturally felt Ya Molian's cold gaze and the cold air emanating from his body. Even he, a general who had experienced many life and death on the battlefield, did not have Ya Molian's aura.

He suddenly realized that Jin Lele's words just now seemed to have offended the doctor's girl, and also the mysterious man who came to protect the doctor's girl.

But now that the matter has come to this, what can he do?

As long as the injury on Jin Anan's face can be healed, he is willing to pay whatever it takes.

After a while, Lin Caisang put the pencil away in his small satchel, walked over with a few pieces of paper, and handed it to Zhi Lingyang.

"This is what I need. General, please prepare it within an hour. I will be here in an hour to treat the injury on Madam Zhi's face. If I can't see these things by then, then I'm sorry, I won't treat this injury. "

"What?!"

Zhi Lingyang was shocked after hearing what she said.

He never expected that Lin Caisang would be so straightforward. Jin Lele just urged her and things would turn into what they are now.
