

Star of Space 486

Chapter 486 We can't let him die!

He told Lin Caisang and his palace master what he heard when he sneaked into the prison.

It was Zhong Yun who was used to living a life of great wealth and no longer wanted to spend time in prison, so he coaxed Mrs. Fu into taking his crime. He also told Mrs. Fu that if she killed someone, she would die anyway.

As long as he could save his son, he promised that he would definitely kill Zhong You, and seize all the property from Master Zhong, and would not let Zhong You take advantage of him. He also said that he would definitely give it to Master Zhong. Go underground to accompany Fu.

Fu thought that he had killed someone and wanted to defame his life, so he stupidly took Zhong Yun's crime off.

She probably never thought that she would not have to die.

"This Zhong Yun is really vicious.

After listening to the narration of the banishment, all the hairs on Lin Caisang's body stood up.

"If such a person is allowed to become big in the future, I don't know how many innocent people will be killed!"

"What do you want Sonny to do?"

Ya Molian looked at her and asked with endearment in her voice.

"He likes to eat, drink, whore, and gamble. Then I will let her lose nothing, and let him make a living as a beggar from now on!" Lin Caisang said with fixed eyes and gritted teeth.

She doesn't like people who do evil things, but she will not show mercy to such evil people, and he must be punished as he deserves.

Kill him?

It's too cheap for him. It's better to let him live in a life worse than death. That would be enough to relieve his anger!

"Go and handle the banishment. Ya Molian looked at the banishment and ordered.

"Yes, Palace Master." Ban Jue accepted the order.

What he likes most is doing this kind of thing. People like Zhong Yun will be sorry to God if they are not punished.

"Exiled Jue, remember, you must not let him die!" Lin Caisang ordered to Exiled Jue.

"Yes, Miss Lin."

He was banished. The thing he disliked the most in his life was people like Zhong Yun. How could he let him die so happily?

He must be allowed to live well and enjoy every bit of punishment.

The next day, after banishing Zhong You to Zhong You, he turned back. At this time, Lin Caisang and Ya Molian were also walking in the rain on the streets of Qianlin County.

"Brother Mo Lian, Qianlin County is so big, why isn't there a shop for sale or for rent?" She felt like her legs were about to slip away, but she just couldn't find a suitable shop. .

To say it was suitable would be too much. She couldn't even find an inappropriate store.

It's simply weird.

"Qianlin County is a big county." Ya Molian just replied to her.

Hearing these words, Lin Caisang also sighed lightly.

Yes, Qianlin County is a big county, and there are so many traders doing fur goods and dried fruit business that even Ye County may not be able to compare with the prosperity of Qianlin County.

But Qianlin County only has more businessmen, which cannot be compared with Ye County itself. Otherwise, Qianlin County would have become a county long ago.

"Let's look for it again."

Seeing that she was unhappy, Ya Molian comforted her again.

"I've asked Ban Jue to ask. There should be news soon. Don't worry."

"I'm not in a hurry."

Lin Caisang shrugged.

"If there isn't one here in Qianlin County, then we can settle for the next best thing and go to Yueyaji Town to find a shop. It's all the same anyway."

They were all used to show off to the family, and she really didn't care about business or anything like that.
