Chapter 487 There are many wild beasts on the mountain

But how to put it, she also knew that there was a reason why Yamolian suggested that she open a snack and dried fruit shop in Qianlin County, because there were many businessmen in Qianlin County. If those people ate the food in her shop and found it delicious, The reputation can spread to other counties and cities. perform

Then if her business grows bigger and bigger and she wants to open a shop somewhere else, she won't have to worry about running out of business.

"Of course, it would be great if we could find it in Qianlin County."

"Wait a moment, let's go somewhere first."

Ya Molian took her hand and walked toward the street.

After a while, Lin Caisang saw a large house with two words hanging on the door - County Government!

"Brother Mo Lian, why did you bring me to the county government office?"

Lin Caisang's head was full of black lines, and she really didn't understand what her brother Mo Lian was doing.

"You don't want me to buy a land of 18,000 acres in Qianlin County now, do you? Isn't it too early?"

She had a rough idea in her mind that this was probably the matter. They had discussed it before, but she felt that things had to be done one by one. She couldn't swallow a big hooves in one go, right?

She will choke.

"It is late."

Yamolian means exactly this.

"I observed last time that after the drying house is built, it will take a long time for the drying stove to dry. Now that I have bought the land and built the drying stove, it will be useful in late autumn. If it is later, I'm afraid I really have to wait until next year to use it."

"This is true."

Lin Caisang nodded and agreed with Ya Molian's words.

In her imagination, even if the drying room is built, it will indeed have to wait until tomorrow to be put into use. But this year, it is enough to use it on Menghuang Mountain. The drying room is also quite big.

"Then I want to choose a field near the mountain," she said.

"It's natural."

Ya Molian pulled her into the side door of the county government office. Someone had already come to greet them, as if they knew they were coming early in the morning.

"Is this Miss Lin? I heard that you want to buy land. I have selected some pieces of land for you. Do you want to take a look at the map of our Qianlin County first? That is a rare and good land. Ah, there are several wealthy businessmen in the county who want to buy it, but I haven't given it to them."

It is normal for wealthy businessmen to buy land, but there are really not many people like Lin Caisang who want to buy thousands of acres of land at once.

He had received a notification from the yamen servant before, saying that a girl Lin wanted to buy land, and she wanted to buy a thousand acres of fertile land. After hearing this, he almost fell from his chair to the ground.

"Is it near the mountainside?"

Lin Caisang followed the officials in charge of the county's middle fields to a service room and asked.

"ah?"

The official was stunned by her question.

Then I carefully observed her clothes, and she looked like an ordinary little girl, not like the wealthy daughter in the boudoir. I muttered to myself, could it be to save money?

"This... girl, generally no one wants the fields on the mountain side. There are many wild animals on the mountain, and it is easiest for them to come down and waste the food. How about I choose a good land for you and make it cheaper for you? "

He glanced at Ya Molian beside him and asked Lin Caisang in a tentative tone.

"No, I want the fields by the mountain." Lin Caisang shook his head and said.

"this....."

The official was in a dilemma. That was not what the person who had contacted him before said. He said that he would take out all the best land, and it would be best to prepare several copies for Miss Lin to choose from.
