

Star of Space 492

Chapter 492: The more money you earn, the more you spend.

Even if, as Miss Lin said, she dug wild ginseng in the mountains, how many wild ginsengs would she have to dig in the mountains to earn money from selling wild ginseng.

He has followed the palace master in this mountain for so many years. He may not know other people's medicinal materials. At least a famous medicinal material like wild ginseng, he can't not know it, right?

Is it possible that wild ginsengs are blind to people and think Lin Caisang has a good character, so they all follow her?

Is this going to become a thing?

"Yaxing?"

Lin Caisang's head is covered with black lines.

She always thought that going to the dental store could only buy some servants and the like, but she never thought that the dental store actually does all kinds of business, and those shops are naturally part of their business.

"Brother Mo Lian, let's go to the county government office tomorrow first, and then go to Yahang."

"good."

Ya Molian responded and turned to look at Ban Jue.

"Go and call Jiang Li over."

"Jiang Li?" Ban Jue was stunned.

Why did you call Jiang Li here? Things here have always been done by him and Ban Wu. No matter what happens, there is still a sword, right? When did Jiang Li take charge of things around the palace master?

"Palace Master, Jiang Li has returned to the palace. If you have anything that is inconvenient for me to handle, I will call Ban Wu here..."

"Exiled, I will go to Yahang tomorrow to buy some people back.

Hearing his words, Lin Caisang knew that he had misunderstood something, and quickly explained before Ya Molian became angry.

"Isn't Jiang Li the best at training servants? Can you and Ban Wu do it?"

"Well."

Ban Jue was choked by Lin Caisang's words.

He is really not good at this matter. He doesn't seem to know how to banish Wu. He really needs to call Jiang Li back.

"Palace Master, this subordinate will go and summon Jiang Li."

...

Early the next morning, Lin Caisang and Ya Molian came out of the county government office. She carefully put the land deed into her small satchel, which she had exchanged for 10,000 taels of silver.

"Hey, I earn a lot of money, and I spend a lot of money."

I couldn't help but sigh, thinking that I would have to spend money to go to the dental shop later.

She raised her right hand, put her ten fingers together in the air, and pursed her lips as she watched the little bits of light coming out of the gaps between her fingers.

"They say that if you can see the gaps between your fingers, you can't accumulate wealth. Brother Mo Lian, look at the gaps in my hands. Has all the money slipped through the gaps between my fingers?"

Hearing this, Ya Molian raised her hand angrily and tapped her forehead.

"Are you running away? Don't throw away your money when doing anything. I want to be like you, just spend a few coins and call out. There are those rich people in the city, all holding their own money. You get the money to live your own hard life."

Lin Caisang twitched her brows, covered her forehead that hurt from her knock, and rolled her eyes at him.

"Am I spending a lot of money?"

She obviously spent thousands or ten thousand taels, but she didn't put much money in her pocket.

"Besides, I just yelled a few words. Just look at me and see if I blinked when I paid the check. I didn't even frown. The money that should be spent must be spent."

But after spending the money, if you calm down and think about it, you will inevitably feel a little distressed. After all, the money was spent from your own hands.

"If you feel sorry for Yinzi, from my side..."

"Okay, okay, I don't feel bad. Let's go to Yaxing. Has Ban Jue been waiting there for a long time? Let's not make him wait too long." Just when Ya Molian was about to say that he had something here When picking up the silver, he was interrupted by Lin Caisang.

