Chapter 493 Bad smell

Ya Molian was held by her hand and chuckled.

He also knew that she was absolutely unwilling to let this little girl use his money now. He just wanted her to stop thinking about spending the money, that's all.

After a while, the two came to the tooth row.

As Ya Molian said before, Qianlin County is indeed very large, with many people and mixed people. The poor places are extremely poor, and the rich places are extremely rich.

When the poor couldn't have enough to eat, they had no choice but to sell their less-favored children to get a few taels of silver to tide them over. Therefore, there were really many slave men and women in the dental shop.

This dental shop is really big. It does all kinds of business, even the furs of wild animals are collected here.

Ban Jue has been waiting at Yahang for a long time. The boss of Yahang is a middle-aged man. Hearing that Banjue's master wanted to buy a lot of manpower, he ordered the most eloquent Yahao in Yahang to come and serve him.

As soon as Lin Caisang and Ya Molian arrived, they were taken to the backyard.

"Well."

As soon as he arrived in the backyard, Lin Caisang smelled an unpleasant smell. It was the smell that came from too many people crowded in the same place and unable to wash frequently.

"Ya Po, how many people are you imprisoned here? Such a bad smell? Don't you even clean them?"

She covered her mouth and asked the Yabozi who was leading the way in an indistinct voice.

Yabozi heard her question and turned to face her with an apologetic smile.

"This distinguished guest is really sorry. Our place is pretty good. The backyards of some other dental shops are dirty. In fact, there is nothing we can do about it."

She shook her head, and Lin Caisang listened to her slowly talking about the people who were sold to the dental industry.

"These people here are all sold to our yard because their families are really poor, or they have committed some crimes at home. Some people are okay, knowing that their future depends on it. We, the mothers-in-law, will find a good home for him or her to work in without making any noise.

But some people are different. They make a lot of noise and some want to escape. That's why our backyard was replaced with iron railings to prevent them from escaping.

But this makes cleaning inconvenient. We often have an old lady go into a room to clean, and she has to be followed by several thugs, otherwise we are afraid that they will cause trouble. There have been incidents where the cleaning lady was injured in the past. .

As for giving those people a bath, those obedient people could wipe themselves or something like that, but it was impossible to take a bath. "

She smiled again and said.

With so many people imprisoned, how can they find the energy to bathe these people who want to escape all day long? Let them live like this. Anyway, their rule here is that the first person to arrive sells first.

Moreover, those who go to the dental shop to buy people have never met anyone like Lin Caisang in several months, who can buy so many people at once.

They always ask people to wait in front, take a few of them out, clean them, and then let the buyers choose. Not many people will come in the backyard.

"There are not many people like you who come to the backyard to pick. We usually wash people off before calling them to the front. We don't let guests smell this smell."

"That can't be the case..."

"Sonny."

Lin Caisang was about to say that being locked up like this would make him sick. It was too dirty, but Ya Molian stopped him.
