

Star of Space 497

Chapter 497 It turned out to be so 'cleaned up'

"Master, we will serve you well in the future, listen to your words, and will not do anything that betrays the Lord. 69shux.Com" The women kept kowtowing to Lin Caisang, and while kowtowing, they repeated Yabozi's words. Reported again.

Seeing this scene, the corner of Lin Caisang's mouth twitched even more, and he thought to himself: These people have been trained well, it seems like Jiang Li has nothing to worry about.

"Then I will..."

"Sonny, check the pulse of each of them."

Lin Caisang was about to tell Mrs. Ya that it was settled, but he heard Ya Molian's voice ringing in his ears.

She was stunned, and she was really a little confused. Could it be that she couldn't even believe the banishment? She also had to ask her to check their pulse. Was she afraid that these people had some kind of hidden disease?

But even though she had doubts in her heart, she still obediently followed Ya Molian's words.

After all, she didn't understand this place, and Ya Molian, although she didn't know how much he knew, at least he knew much better than she did.

So, under Ya Po's arrangement, the women stood up one by one, stretched out their hands and waited for Lin Caisang to feel her pulse.

Not to mention, Ya Molian's concern was right, Lin Caisang really wanted to know what happened.

"Let her come out."

She looked calmly and motioned for a woman to come out.

When her name was called, the woman's face was full of fear. She stood there and didn't even dare to move. How could she walk?

"Go get her out."

Upon seeing this, Yabozi immediately ordered the thugs around him to pull the woman out, and forced her to kneel down in front of Lin Caisang.

"Dear guest, is there something wrong with this woman that makes you dislike her?"

With a smile on her face, she looked at Lin Caisang and asked.

Among the thirty women, she saw that this woman's face was considered good, and her hands seemed to be capable of working. How could she be disliked by this distinguished guest?

Is it because of this face?

But that's not right. There are several women who are prettier than her, and I haven't seen Lin Caisang say anything about them.

And she just saw that this distinguished guest looked bad when he checked her pulse. Although he didn't say it at first, he took the person out after checking everyone's pulse.

If there is really some hidden disease hidden in this woman, then she has to ask clearly, otherwise it will be bad if it is transmitted to other people.

"Ya Po, how long has this woman been sold here?" Lin Caisang patiently asked Ya Po.

"She, my dear guest, please wait a moment, please let me take a look."

While she was talking, the thick book in Yabozi's hand was opened. After a while, she raised her head and looked at Lin Caisang.

"Dear guest, this woman has been sold to our dental shop for more than three months. She made trouble several times before and was taught a lesson by thugs before she calmed down. But don't worry, this woman is definitely capable of working. "

She assured, patting her chest.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang's face became stern. Only then did he understand why Ya Molian got angry when Yabozi mentioned that thugs were 'cleaning up' these troublemaking women. It turned out that this so-called cleaning up was actually like this. 'of.

She knelt down and looked at the woman kneeling on the ground.

"Where are you from?" she asked.

"This slave is from Beihan."

The woman glanced at Lin Caisang secretly, swallowed in fear, and replied in a low voice.

"The land of northern cold." Lin Caisang thought for a moment.
